The Negro Answers Russia

Today, as the Soviet newspapers and radio play up the racial news from the United States, giving to every stupid klan episode an importance it does not possess, repeating over and over with willful distortation the wicked, occasional acts of violence, and seeking to cause all the free nations of the world to believe that in the United States terror and cruelty is the constant lot of all persons of color, it is necessary that all persons of good will assist in putting the picture in balance. Fortunately, a number of Negroes, speaking in Europe, are assisting in this field.

To begin with, Negro leadership establishes as a premise that despite improvements the American Negro is not satisfied and will not be until equal opportunity is obtained, but that they are first of all Americans and will seek progress within the framework of their democratic governments, national and state. They, therefore, refuse to be duped by the Communists

Story

There are in America about 15,000,000 Negroes, making up about 15 per cent of the population. That exceeds that of any foreign-born population group.

At the time o freedom, in 1865, about 96 per cent of the Negroes in the United States were illiterate. Today a good 95 per cent can read and write and the hunger of the Negro for education is marked. In New York City, for example, the literacy of the Negro population is of a higher percentage than that of the foreign-born white population.

The American Negro, for all his difficulty with entrance into higher educational institutions, nonetheless has more opportunity than the average Englishman. Of the 15,000,000 Negroes in the United States there are 128,000 enrolled in American colleges and universities. Of the more than 50,000,000 persons in Britain only 85,000 young men and women are enrolled in universities.

Progress has been marked in the South. Today there are only five Southern States in which Negroes are not admitted to state universities in at least some of the graduate courses. In 1910 there were only 42 Negro high schools in the South. Today there are 2,500. The value of Negro schools in the South was less than $80,000,000 in 1940. Today it is above $150,000,000. Negro professors are regular faculty members in more than 70 Northern universities.

Wealth

What the peoples of Europe find most difficult to believe is that of the 15,000,000 Negroes, almost 900,000 own their own homes, farmers hold title to more than 12,000,000 acres of land, and that Negroes have accumulated more than $5 billion in savings.

Two hundred Negro insurance companies and banks have assets of more than $100,000,000.

American Negroes own approximately 1,500,000 automobiles, which is a higher ratio of ownership than exists in England and probably is higher than in any European country

While a national FEPC has failed of enactment, there are already 11 states and 21 cities which have adopted legislation seeking to guarantee equal employment opportunity.

Labor unions are not free of discrimination, yet almost 1,500,000 Negroes now belong to them and receive equal pay. Some are officers of these organizations.

In business, Negro ownership also runs around a value of $100,000,000, and includes almost every field of private enterprise. These include more than 200 newspapers, all free to say what they wish.

One of the greatest diplomatic triumphs of our generation belongs to a Negro, Dr. Ralph Bunche. He was also winner of the Nobel peace prize.

These are some of the things which belong in the picture being given Europe by Negroes—who do not exclude such things as the Cicero race riots, in Illinois, the murder of a Negro leader in Florida, and the occasional acts of mob violence.

They are also doing a good job for all of us by telling this story of why the American Negro is a loyal American working for the full promise of his country, untouched in any degree by Communist propaganda.

U.S. To Hold Wage Talks With Steelers

Industry, Union Negotiations Fail

By CLAYTON KNOWLES

New York Times News Service
Special to The Atlanta Constitution

WASHINGTON, April 15—Charles Sawyer, Secretary of Commerce, announced tonight that he, as operator of government-seized steel mills, will negotiate directly on wages with the union.

Sawyer acted as negotiations between steel owners and labor collapsed.

He said he will proceed "promptly but not precipitately," but immediate reaction was that he would quickly grant a 12½-cent-an-hour wage increase that the Wage Stabilization Board recommended retroactive to Jan. 1.

WHITE HOUSE HUDDLE

The secretary's statement:

"Inasmuch as negotiations between industry and labor have ended, I shall proceed promptly but not precipitately to consider terms and conditions of employment as I was instructed to do in Paragraph 3 of the President's executive order. I have nothing further to say on the subject at this time."

The secretary's statement was issued shortly after he emerged from a White House conference with President Truman. The conference followed announcement by Dr. John R. Steelman, acting director of defense mobilization, that he had broken off government-sponsored negotiations. Steelman said:

"Further negotiations at this time would not be productive."

2 SIDES WON'T BUDGE

Earlier, Sawyer set up an organization to help him operate the mills, under government control a full week. He announced there will be a controller to handle the industry's books, a production division, a compliance division, a solicitor and an operating manager's liaison office. He did not immedi-

Truck Driver Dies in Crash With Trolley

David Marvin Davis, 37, of Rt. 1, Lawrenceville, died from injuries he received when the truck he was driving collided with a trolley at Cooper and Eugenia Sts., S. W., Tuesday.

This Year Compared With 7 Killed During the Same Time Last Year

His death brought traffic fatalities in Atlanta this year to 21, three times the number for the same period last year.

Davis and a passenger in the truck, Mrs. Hattie Hansard, 39, of Rt. 3, Conyers, were hurled from the vehicle. Mrs. Hansard was treated at Grad. Hospital for head and back injuries.

Police said the front wheels of the truck were knocked off, and the trolley swung to the left side of Cooper St., knocking down a coach sign and ramming the front porch of the house at 428 Cooper St., S. W.

The trolley, operated by Ralph Joseph Baumgartner, 36, of 1149 Tucker Pl., S. W., was garage-bound and had no passengers. Baumgartner was charged with failure to yield right-of-way and accident.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOSSES FIRST BALL

L. to R.: Vice President Barkley, Chief Justice Vinson, President

Nashville, Weather Chill Crackers, 5,788 Fans

Nashville's Vols thrashed starter Ray Crone and four other Atlanta hurlers for 15 hits and a 12-4 victory Tuesday night in the first game of the season at Ponce de Leon Park.

Outfielder Dusty Rhodes hammered two homers and a triple for the Vols to pace the lusty attack.

Rookie southpaw Vince DiLorenzo and veteran Pete Modica limited Atlanta to six safeties.

Cold weather and threatening skies limited the opening turnout to 5,788, far below the anticipated 16,000.

In American league openers, Ned Garver of the St. Louis Browns, and lefty Mel Parnell of the Boston Red Sox tossed shutouts.

Garver, a 20-game winner last season, limited the Detroit Tigers to six hits and blanked them, 3 to 0, before the day's largest crowd —41,112 fans—in Detroit.

Parnell proved to be a better southpaw than President Truman in Washington. Mr. Truman, who had first-balled the Senators to three straight opening day wins, was unsuccessful in his supposedly farewell delivery.

The Griffith stadium crowd of 25,859 saw Parnell shut out the Nats, 3 to 0, allowing them three hits.

RAIN IN GOTHAM

Rain in New York and Philadelphia postponed the openings that would have pitted the Yankees against the Athletics in Shibe Park and the Giants against the Phillies at the Polo Grounds.

Cleveland and Brooklyn got off to fast starts, thanks to mound stars Preacher Roe and Early Wynn. Roe, Brooklyn's slender 22-game winner, pitched a seven-hitter as he bested another southpaw ace, Warren Spahn of the Boston Braves, 3 to 2, before 5,000 at Braves Field. Wynn scattered six hits as the Indians beat the White Sox, 3 to 2, in the inaugural at Chicago's Comiskey Park before 25,037 fans.

Warming News; Atlanta To Lose Weather Blues

The local weatherman unbuttoned his heavy wool topcoat Tuesday night and said, "The worst is over. The weather in Atlanta will be slightly warmer Wednesday and Thursday."

The mercury is expected to climb back to 65 Wednesday afternoon and probably will move slightly higher Thursday. The weekend should be much warmer, according to the weatherman.

The predicted extremes for Wednesday are 40 and 65. Tuesday's extremes were 40 and 47.

Dean Resigns At Piedmont, Blasts Aid

By JOHN KISER

The long and bitter controversy at Piedmont College over alleged "fascist money" the school receives from the Texas Educational Association flared anew Tuesday as Dean A. R. Van Cleave resigned and charged the administration was planning to accept "large sums" from the TEA for building purposes.

The 61-year-old dean, who was former moderator of the Southeastern Congregational churches, quit at a faculty meeting, saying, "I fear fascism as much as I do communism."

The dean, who has been an outspoken critic of the $500 monthly grants from TEA, was one of three faculty members involved in the controversy last year.

At that time H. E. Bowen, English instructor, and school treasurer David Eddy both were asked to resign. Van Cleave said Tuesday, "I thought I was fired last year." He referred to a report that President James E. Walter asked him to resign early in 1951 after the school began receiving TEA funds.

The TEA, financed by millionaire George Armstrong, is administered in Georgia by retired Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, a former America Firster.

Piedmont trustee Claude Purcell, director of business administration in the State Department of Education, said "So far as I know Van Cleave has left of his own volition."

Purcell said the dean had been "looking around for other jobs."

With reference to the TEA funds,

Hope Held for Effective Polio 'Shots;' Virus Traffic Discovered in Blood

By ROBERT K. PLUMB

New York Times News Service, Special to The Atlanta Constitution

NEW YORK, April 15—New evidence indicatng that the paralytic form of poliomyelits should be one of the most easily preventable of diseases, by immunizaton, was presented here this afternoon by research workers from Johns Hopkins and Yale Universites.

The reports suggest that polio is a two-stage disease. In the first or benign stage, the viruses of the disease are spread in the bloodstream without causing more than a mild malaise. Only the second stage, when the viruses travel to and destroy the nerves, does it result in crippling or deformity.

Large-scale tests will be conducted during the polio season this summer to determine whether the presently-developed vaccines and immunization techniques will protect children against the crippling stage of the disease. The benign form, which about 80 per cent of all American adults have had, most without knowing it, may not be effected by the protective measures.

The reports were presented at the 36th annual meeting of the American Association of Immunologists being held at the Statler Hotel as a part of the convention of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology. Research work was supported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which will also conduct the summer tests.

Dr. Dorothy M. Horstmann, assistant professor of preventive medicne at the Yale School of Medicine, and Dr. David Bodian, associate professor of epidemiology at Johns Hopkins University, described experiments with chimpanzees and monkeys which lead to the two-stage concept of polio.

Although research workers are usually reluctant to accept evidence from animal experiments with complete assurance that it will apply to human diseases, they

President Calls 7-State Flood Parley

OMAHA, Neb., April 15 (AP) — Missouri River savagery, which President Truman aims to see first-hand tomorrow, intensified tonight in this flood battered midlands area, Ameriea's valley of misery.

The number of farms, of towns and of acres smashed by the unleashed power of millions of tons of rolling water climbed higher.

The Red Cross late today added another five thousand families to its tally of those affected by Midwest floods, giving a new total of 26,620. The figure is presumed to represent fully 100,000 persons.

2 CITIES BRACE

But Omaha and Council Bluffs, Ia.—with the worst due Thursday morning—still were ahead in the dramatic fight against nature. The levees and flood walls still contained the swirling, chocolate colored water that pressed against them higher and harder than their builders ever had dreamed.

Fully two-thirds of Council Bluffs, a city of 45,000, stood in ghostly silence, abandoned to the flood that may or may not hit it. Thirty-four thousand in the Iowa city and another 5,000 across the river in Omaha suburbs had given up their homes just in case flood waters hit them.

That was the picture as the White House announced today that President Truman has asked seven Midwestern governors to meet with him here tomorrow to discuss measures for dealing with the flood emergency.

87 CITIES PERILED

The list of governors was just about a roll call of states in the throes of flood troubles, not only from the Missouri River, but also from the Upper Mississippi River and the Red River of the North.

An Associated Press check showed a minimum of 87 towns and cities in the Upper Midwest, either flooded or threatened.

A Red Cross report listed more than a million acres flooded in the Missouri and Mississippi River valleys; with at least 34 towns inundated. Heaviest to date has been in the Dakotas and Iowa, the agency said.

Tonight, the President allocated $100,000 from his disaster relief fund for Minnesota. The money will be used by the Housing and

Allies Doom Plan To Link Airfields, Soviet Truce Role

MUNSAN, Wednesday, April 16. (INS) — Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, spokesman for the Allied armistice delegation, today said the United Nations will not permit the linking of two issues advanced by the Reds for simultaneous disposal.

As the truce negotiations dragged on at Panmunjom, Nuckols told correspondents:

"The United Nations will not permit the phony issue of 'neutral Russia,' which has been fabricated by the Communists, to be confused with the fundamental problem of a realistic armistice and the safety of UN troops which can be threatened by a build-up of Communist airfields."

General Nuckols apparently was referring to the insistence of the Reds that they be allowed to build up their war-damaged airfields during an armistice in which the Soviet Union would be among the nations designated as neutral inspectors.

Britain Extends Shield To West Germany, Italy

By RAYMOND DANIELL

New York Times News Service, Special to The Atlanta Constitution

LONDON, April 15—A white paper published tonight aligned Britain squarely with the European Defense Community. It did not commit her to membership but the treaty Britain promised to conclude went a long way toward allaying the fears that her earlier aloofness had engendered.

It promised to extend Britannia's shield to cover the German Federal Republic and Italy just as under the Brussels treaty of 1948 Britain is committed to go to the aid of France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg in the event of an attack from any quarter.

The new British commitment makes Britain an ally of Germany—a truncated Germany it is true—for the first time since the Napoleonic era. But at the same time it is an assurance to France that if Germany instead of Russia menaces French security Britain will be on the side of France.

As a compromise between conflicting interests the formula is a masterpiece of diplomacy. It satisfies British and Commonwealth desires to avoid entanglements with Europe in conflict with specific Commonwealth interests. It assures Germany of British support against Russian aggression and it guarantees the French against the dangers inherent in the emergence of Germany as a military power in the event she breaks away from the European Defense Community.

As the British see it the new agreement has a more moral than practical force, for in their view the pledge that has now become explicit was implicit always in the realities of the European situation. Nevertheless, it became obvious to CARACAS, Venezuela, April 15—An attempt to assassinate Col. Marcos Perez Jimenez of the governing Junta has been smashed and 14 members of the plot arrested, National Security authorities revealed last night.

According to the announcement, the assassination was to have taken place last Wednesday, together with other disturbances to "create chaos in the capital." Over 300 home-made bombs were uncovered by police and shown to reporters.

The dissolved Accion Democratica Party was accused of the plot by authorities who said two of those arrested confessed they were acting under orders of the party.

Truman Signs Peace; Japan Free April 28

By ANTHONY LEVIERO

New York Times News Service

WASHINGTON, April 15—Japan will recover full sovereignty and World War II will end formally in the Pacific area April 28.

President Truman signed the Japanese Peace treaty today and thereby set the stage for the final act of concord in which 49 nations, but not Russia, have joined.

The President also wrote his name on security treaties with Australia, New Zealand and Japan, and the mutual defense treaty with The Philippines. He declared the actions brought peace and security nearer to the Pacific and contributed toward the greater goal of lasting peace for the world.

Mr. Truman at the same time signed the stop-gap resolution extending his emergency war powers until June 1. Some of the powers would have ceased when the peace treaty goes into force April 28.

The President acted without ceremony. Only newspapermen wit-

Victory Gives Ike Most of 38 Delegates

By JACK BELL

NEWARK, N.J., Wednesday Apr. 16 (AP)—Homecoming Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today pocketed most of New Jersey's 38 Republican presidential votes in an impressive Eastern Seaboard primary victory.

Outdistancing Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio after a shaky, lead-shifting start, the five-star general swept this industrial state's Republican popularity contest by a margin that might give him an 85,000 edge over Taft in a total vote of about 500,000.

BIG BOOST FOR GENERAL

In possibly the last on-the-ballot clash between the two before the July Republican convention in Chicago, Eisenhower got a big boost toward the nomination to which he aspires.

The count in the Republican race from 2,230 of the state's 3,840 precincts was:

Eisenhower 172,718

Harold E. Stassen 9,253

In the Democratic primary, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, ex-crime buster and coonskin cap campaigner, ran away from a scattered field of write-in candidates. But he may not get the state's 32 Democratic convention votes.

EAST BLOC FOR GENERAL

If the Eisenhower victory trend continued, New Jersey would be combined with New York and possibly Connecticut to give him an Eastern seaboard bloc of votes balancing the Ohio-Illinois-Wisconsin-Nebraska bloc preponderantly for Taft.

There was no immediate comment from the Taft camp. But the Ohio senator had accused Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll of double-crossing him by coming out publicly for Eisenhower and throwing the

Fannin School Board Chief Fined in Moonshine Case

By CELESTINE SIBLEY

Constitution Staff Writer

BLUE RIDGE, April 15—Coleman Forrester, 47, chairman of the Fannin County Board of Education, Tuesday pleaded guilty to charges of manufacturing and possessing 96 gallons of moonshine whisky and was fined a total of $250 in the Blue Ridge Circuit of Superior Court.

Forrester entered his plea and was fined by Judge Howell Brooke.

Forrester's term as chairman of the school board expires at this term of court and the grand jury is expected to either reappoint him or name his successor before the end of the week. He also is a member of the Fannin County Republican Executive Committee.

Ralph Davenport, who was arrested by Sheriff Hobart Henson at the same time Forrester was arrested, entered a plea of guilty to possessing whisky and working at a still. He was fined a total of $150.

Sheriff Henson said he arrested the school official and Davenport as they hauled the whisky out of a still near Dial community about 8 p. m. on a night early in March.

Meanwhile, 18-year-old Billy Watson, alias "Little Red" Watson, and his brother Thomas, 31, will go to trial in Blue Ridge Superior Court Wednesday charged with the shotgun slaying of their mother, Mrs. Minnie Watson.

The Watson brothers are charged with shooting their mother during a family altercation near "Hell Hollow" community Jan. 20.

Sol. Gen. James Manning said Mrs. Watson died in a hospital several hours after her sons had blown off her arm with one shotgun blast and wounded her in the side.

Franco, Portuguese Discuss NATO Link

Agree Peninsula Indivisible; Form Single Defense Front

By LOUIS NEVIN

MADRID, April 15—(AP)—Spain and Portugal announced tonight the formation of a common front toward problems of Western defense.

A communique issued after a surprise meeting between Generalissimo Francisco Franco and Portuguese Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar said they had agreed to "strategic unity" in future diplomatic dealings.

". . . INDIVISIBLE . . ."

Franco and Salazar agreed the peninsula is indivisible with regard to Western defense, the communique said.

Portugal is a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization; Spain is not. How the agreement will affect Portugal's commitments to NATO was not immediately clear.

The two chiefs of state met Monday night and today in a 12th century castle built by Henry II of Castilla in Ciudad Rodrigo, a town of 11,000 inhabitants 20 miles from the Portuguesa frontier.

LINK WITH NATO

Authoritative sources reported before Franco and Salazar separated that the top question of the talks was how to link Spain with NATO defenses. The two chiefs of state headed back to their capitals at 2 p.m.

The negotiations caught political circles in both capitals by surprise. The two leaders last met at Franco's summer home in Galicia in September, 1950.

IBERIAN PACT

Portugal, a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, is allied to Spain in the Iberian pact. Ever since the start of the Atlantic Alliance, the Portuguese have been trying to get Spain into NATO to correct what they call "a strategic absurdity."

(Strong feeling among many members against Franco's government blocked a Portuguese bid in Spain's behalf at the February meeting of the NATO council in Lisbon. Spain may obtain a link with the alliance, however, through a bases-for-aid deal with the United States. The U. S. is expected to make 100 million dollars available to strengthen the Spanish economy in return for use of certain Spanish ports and air bases.)

PARLEY TOPICS

In addition to NATO, it was believed the conference topics included:

1. Spain's request for a revision of the status of Tangier to give her control of police in that strategic international city at the western entrance to the Mediterranean. Governed under a temporary agreement between the United States, Britain, France and Russia since 1945, Tangier was the scene March 30 of anti-French rioting in which a half dozen persons were killed.

2. Spain's reported efforts to negotiate a Mediterranean defense pact with six Middle Eastern nations which Foreign Minister Alberto Martin Artajo is now visiting —Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Egypt. Under the Iberian Pact, each partner must consult the other before assuming new international obligations.

U. S. Judge Rules Out Rail Strike

But Says Court Can't Solve Issue

CLEVELAND, April 15 (AP) — A federal judge today forbade three railroad unions to strike against the government, but said the courts should not be used "to impel collective bargaining."

Spokesmen for the unions—engineers, firemen and conductors—said they would appeal the preliminary injunction ordered by Judge Emerich B. Freed.

One union officer linked today's ruling with the government's seizure of the steel industry, and denounced "present seizure tactics."

The judge said his injunction "is not the solution to the dispute over wages and working conditions which has existed for a period of three years."

U. S., UNION TASK

Finding a solution, he continued, was the duty of "the government, the railroads and the unions involved."

The court, he said, "must in the interests of national safety, exercise its power to prevent irreparable injury" by granting the request of Justice Department attorneys for the injunction. They acted for the Army, which took control of the nation's railroads Aug. 27, 1950, when a nation-wide strike was threatened.

Today's decision granted a preliminary injunction replacing the temporary restraining order which Judge Freed issued on March 11, halting a three-day strike. It had been called against the New York Central lines west of Buffalo, and the St. Louis Terminal lines.

The preliminary injunction is effective until Judge Freed can conduct another hearing on the merits of the case and the question of granting a permanent injunction. The original, temporary order banned the union from continuing the strike or spreading it to other lines.

"SERVITUDE"

James P. Shields, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, issued a statement in Washington saying "in the light of the Cleveland decision and the seizure of the steel industry, this nation is faced with the spectre of continuing and expanding involuntary servitude unless present seizure tactics are wiped out on constitutional grounds."

A BLE spokesman said the ruling would be appealed immediately to the U. S. District Court in Cincinnati.

Basis of the appeal, he said, would be contentions that (1) the government has put less than 50 Army officers to work on the nation's railroads, and hence could not say it was an employer; (2) the government has set up no court for union grievances.

In the preliminary hearing before Judge Freed, the union attorneys had argued government control was a fiction, and presented stacks of exhibits to show the strike against the two lines did not create an emergency warranting an injunction.

ATOMIC "DAWN"
Neutrons Over Nevada

A-Test Fireball Brightest Seen in Nevada Series

LAS VEGAS, Nev., April 15—(AP). The brightest fireball to arise from the Nevada desert since it became the site of atomic experiments shot skyward at the Yucca Flat proving grounds in a nuclear detonation.

An Air Force bomber flying from Kirtland Air Base in New Mexico released the latest atomic device to be exploded at the test grounds 70 miles north of Las Vegas at 9:30 a. m., PST (12:30 p. m. EST).

From the unofficial press observation post on 8,000-foot Mt. Charleston the explosion was viewed as a giant reddish fireball that for some reason lacked the usual brilliant flash which preceded previous detonations.

The giant ball of fire, even from 45 miles away, had an unusually brilliant glow in the instant it stood on the horizon before it broke in two like two tails and then became obscured in a brownish cloud.

Today's atomic blast was neither felt nor heard in Las Vegas.

B-36 Crashes, Explodes; 15 Killed, 2 Escape Flames

SPOKANE, Wash., April 15—(UP)—A $3,500,000 B-36 atom bomber crashed and exploded on a deserted farm while taking off on a routine training flight from Fairchild Air Force Base today, killing 15 and injuring two.

The Air Force said two of the 17 on board crawled from the flaming nose of the six-engined giant of the U. S. Air Force. They were taken to the base hospital and treated for serious burns and other injuries.

SURVIVORS IDENTIFIED

The survivors were identified as A 2/C James Breedlove, Donora, Pa., and M/Sgt. Walter L. Campbell, Chetek, Wis. Campbell's condition was listed as "critical" and Breedlove's as "noncritical."

Officers said the men were not in condition to give an account of the crackup.

The plane, one of the bombers built to deliver atom bombs any place in the world, took off from the base near here at about 6:45 a. m. (Atlanta time). In a few minutes it was a flaming, twisted mass of metal.

EXPLODES

A Civil Aeronautics Authority official who saw the crash from Geiger Field, one mile from the scene, said the plane exploded on the ground before it burst into flames. He said he saw a blinding flash.

Melted pieces of the plane, largest military aircraft in production in the United States, were scattered over a 1,000-square-foot area on the field, eight miles west of here.

The plane, attached to the 92nd Heavy Bombardment Wing of the 57th Air Division was the second B-36 to crash here in three months.

Senators Are Told Airmen Fleeced by Biloxi Grafters

WASHINGTON, April 15—(UP)—The Senate preparedness subcommittee said today that thousands of young airmen at Keesler Field, Miss., have been "plundered" of millions of dollars by gamblers who paid "graft" to the City of Biloxi.

In an official report on its investigation of the Mississippi "Gold Coast," the subcommittee urged the Air Force to investigate all its bases in continental United States to make certain that no similar conditions exist.

PAWN UNIFORMS

They said gambling was so widespread at Biloxi that servicemen had pawned their uniforms to get money to feed the "one-armed bandits"—slot machines. Others passed bad checks and committed thefts.

The committee said resulting "mental unrest" and low morale at the base may have caused the suicides of two Air Force officers.

The committee sharply criticized Maj. Gen. James F. Powell, Keesler commandant. It said he failed to prevent "these leeches" from preying on his men although he should have acted with "vigor and dispatch" to stop the "evil."

The senators criticized the Greyhound bus lines for permitting gamblers to make a "sucker trap" out of its Biloxi station. The company's "greed" for money induced its officials to permit the gamblers to install slot machines and demand 60 per cent of the "take"—10 per cent higher than normal, the report said.

CONDEMN OFFICIALS

The committee also condemned Biloxi's city officials for their "manifest desire to share in the plunder." They said the officials charged a $12.50 "fine" on each slot machine a month, although slot machines are outlawed in Mississippi. The report said this was "graft by a municipality."

The committee gave high praise to Mississippi Governor White and the state's attorney general, J. P. Coleman, for their "forthright action" in getting the gambling operations closed down and their promises to keep them closed.

Bandits Grab $100,000 in French Gold

PARIS, April 15 — (AP) — Five bandits today held up a gold bullion truck and escaped with 27,800,000 francs in gold ingots and bank notes (more than $100,000 at the black market rate for gold) in the heart of Paris' busy financial district.

A bemused sidewalk crowd watched the entire proceedings under the impression the robbery was a publicity stunt advertising a popular British movie, until the bandits opened fire with pistols and machineguns on police who happened on the scene.

"MOST DARING"

Police Commissioner Jean Ducret, who put more than 100 special detectives on the trail of the five gunmen who disappeared through the rear doorway of a private house on busy Boulevard St. Martin, said the robbery was "one of the most daring and best organized" in his experience.

The robbery was carried out barely 125 yards down the street from the Third Police Brigade headquarters.

It would have passed unnoticed, he said, except for an off-duty patrolman who chanced upon the scene and shrilled an alarm on his whistle.

ONLOOKERS DUCK

The surprised gunmen leaped into the two stolen cars they used for the robbery and sent the even more surprised onlookers scurrying for cover when they fired several rounds from a machinegun and pistols as they sped from the scene.

No one was injured.

Ducret said the bandits seized 48 gold ingots of one kilogram (2.2 pounds) each and swept up 2,000,000 francs in bank notes before they were frightened by the police alarm.

Pravda's Plug Just Mystery to Tennessee Town

FAIRVIEW, Tenn., April 15—(AP)—Residents of this rural Tennessee community—many of whom never heard of Pravda—couldn't figure out today how Fairview got mentioned in the Soviet Russian newspaper.

A Moscow dispatch said today a group of Fairview's "progressive women" had written a message of sympathy to the women of Pyongyang, capital of North Korea.

Kills Grandchildren, Wife, Then Hangs Self

BAYEUX, France, April 15 (AP)—A farm worker last night killed five young grandchildren and his wife as they slept, set fire to the house and then hanged himself.

Neighbors said the man, Leon Gillette, 70, had been despondent because he had been ordered to leave the house where he had lived for 14 years and was unable to find other lodging.

Wafdists Label Premier's Policy 'British-Planned'

CAIRO, Egypt, April 15 (AP) — Egypt's Wafd party launched a fierce attack tonight on Premier Ahmed Naguib Hilaly Pasha. It came just as the Egyptian ambassador to London, Abdel Fattah Amr Pasha, left for Britain by air for talks with Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden on the smoldering Anglo-Egyptian dispute.

The Wafd party, dominating the Parliament which is now in suspension, issued a long statement accusing the Hilaly government of "carrying out a policy planned by the British." It appealed to all Wafd party members to "continue the struggle toward the realization of national aims."

100 Students, 2 Teachers Felled by Gas

ST. LOUIS, April 15 (AP)—More than 100 pupils and two teachers in a grade school for Negroes were overcome today, apparently from gas inhalation. Two pupils were reported in serious condition.

Thirty-five others were taken to a hospital for examination. The school is the Dunbar Branch School for Negroes.

Ambulances and police cruisers rushed to the school shortly after the incident was reported at 11 a. m.

Most of the youngsters who became ill were in the kindergarten and first-grade rooms, adjacent to a gas furnace in the one-story brick building.

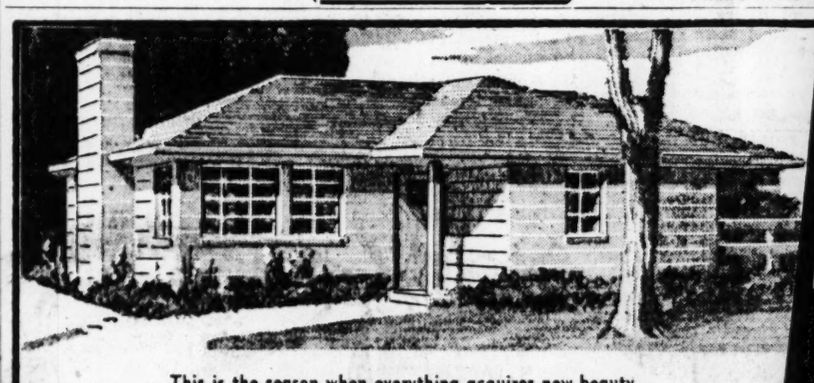

Officials of the main Dunbar school, located nearby, rushed to the smaller buildings when informed of the situation and helped bring the children outside. The branch has 335 pupils, ranging in age from 4½ to 9 years.

Supreme Court Upholds Pledging Party Delegates

By 5-2 Vote, Elector Bill Held Not Barred by Constitution

By LEWIS WOOD
New York Times News Service, Special to The Atlanta Constitution

WASHINGTON, April 15—The Supreme Court held by 5 to 2 today state legislatures may lawfully authorize political committees to demand pledges of party loyalty from candidates for presidential and vice-presidential electors on party tickets.

This declaration, announced late today by Associate Justice Stanley Reed, was an elaboration of a memorandum opinion hurriedly presented 12 days ago to meet a pressing situation in the Alabama Democratic primary. There, Edmund Blair, a weekly newspaper publisher, had refused to comply with a resolution by the State Democratic Executive Committee, that if chosen elector, he must vote for the choice of the coming Chicago convention.

SUSTAINED BY TOP COURT

Sustained by the Alabama Supreme Court, Blair was defeated April 3 in U. S. Supreme Court by the division reiterated today. In the majority were Reed, Chief Justice Vinson and Associate Justices Burton, Clark and Minton. A dissent by Associate Justice Jackson was joined by Associate Justice Douglas. Associate Justices Black and Frankfurter abstained, the latter because he did not hear the arguments on the issue.

Justice Reed in the 16-page majority opinion found the Constitution presented no barrier to such a pledge as that in Alabama. History, he added, teaches that electors were expected to support the party nominees.

" . . . PAWN BALLOT . . . "

Contrastingly, the Jackson-Douglas dissent said under the Alabama plan an aspiring elector must "pawn his ballot to a candidate" yet unnamed. The two dissenters also felt the "demise of the whole electoral system" would be no disaster, and that indeed, direct elections of a President would be a gain or "simplicity and integrity."

The Blair test was hurried to the Supreme Court when he announced that as an elector he would not vote for "Harry S. Truman or for anyone who advocates the Truman-Humphrey civil rights program."

Describing the Alabama case, Justice Reed proceeded then to a discussion of the general situation. He said the applicable provisions of the Constitution on their face furnish no definite answer whether a state may permit a party to require party regularity from its primary candidates for national electors.

BY AUTHORITY OF STATE

"The presidential electors," he continued, "exercise a federal function in balloting for president and vice-president, but they are not federal officers or agents any more than the state elector who votes for congressman. They act by authority of the state that in turn receives its authority from the federal Constitution.

"Neither the language of Article II, Section I, nor that of the 12th Amendment forbids a party to require from candidates in its primary a pledge of political conformity with the aims of the party. Unless such a requirement is implicit, certainly neither provision of the Constitution requires a state political party, affiliated with a national party through acceptance of the national call to send delegates to the national convention, to accept persons as candidates who refuse to agree to abide by the party's requirement."

Mine Elevator Cable Breaks; 3 Are Killed

ROSICLARE, Ill., April 15—(INS)—Three miners at the Alcoa Mining Co., in Rosiclare were killed today when a cable on a cage carrying them to the surface broke, plunging them 600 feet down a shaft to their deaths.

The one and one-half-inch cable snapped for some undetermined reason when the men were within 200 feet of the surface.

Workmen, who had to go down another shaft a mile away to get to the men, took two hours in recovering the bodies from the smashed shaft.

Bomb Believed In Parcel Sent To Nazi Inmates

BERLIN, April 15 (AP)—A package believed to contain a bomb apparently aimed at the imprisoned Hitler clique has been intercepted, German police said tonight.

The package was sent from Southern Germany with no return address. It arrived at the Spandau War Crimes Prison and was confiscated by the British, who are in charge of the guard this month over Rudolf Hess and six other major figures of the Third Reich, all serving long terms.

It was simply addressed to the prison.

Ingrid's Letter Confessing Love Read in Court

LOS ANGELES, April 15 (AP)—Ingrid Bergman's letter to her doctor husband, confessing that she had fallen in love with an Italian film director, was made public for the first time in court today.

The letter was written by Miss Bergman to Dr. Peter Lindstrom, noted brain surgeon, April 3, 1949. They were later divorced.

Lawyers for Lindstrom introduced the letter in court as he vigorously opposed her request that she be allowed to have their 15-year old daughter in Italy with her next summer. Miss Bergman is living there with her husband, film director Roberto Rossellini.

"LITTLE PETER"

The letter was dated "Amalei, April 3, 1949" and began:

"Petter Lilla (Swedish for little Peter):

"It will be very difficult for you to read this letter and it is difficult for me to write it. But I believe it is the only way.

"I would like to explain everything from the beginning, but you know enough, and I would like to ask forgiveness, but that seems ridiculous. It is not altogether my fault and how can you forgive that I want to stay with Roberto? I know he has also written you and told you all that there is to tell.

DIDN'T WANT LOVE AFFAIR

"It was not my intention to fall in love and go to Italy forever. After all our plans and dreams, you know that is true. But how can I help it or change it?

"You saw in Hollywood how my enthusiasm for Roberto grew and grew and you know how much alike we are, with the same desire for the same thing, for the same kind of work and the same understanding of life. I thought maybe I could conquer the feeling I had for him when I saw him in his own milieu, so different from mine. But it turned out just the opposite.

"WHAT I ALWAYS WANTED"

"The people, the life, the country is not strange, it is what I always wanted. I had not the courage to talk more about him at home than I did with you as it all seemed so incredible, like an adventure, and at the time I didn't realize the depth of his feeling.

"Min Petter (My Peter), I know how this letter falls like a bomb on our home, our Pelle (the name they had planned to give their next child', our future, our past, so filled with sacrifice and help on your part. And now you stand alone in the ruins, and I am unable to help you. Stackers lilla pappa men also stackers lilla mama" (poor mama).

SEEKS TO MOVE CHILD

Dr. Lindstrom came to court asking permission to transfer his daughter's home from Beverly Hills to Aspinwall, Pa., where he will be the new chief neurosurgeon at a Veterans Administration hospital.

In addition he is opposing Miss Bergman's petition, filed here, asking that a person of Dr. Lindstrom's choosing be named to accompany their daughter to Rome next summer for a visit. The daughter's name originally was Pia but she has been renamed Jenny Ann.

As the hearing began, superior Judge Mildred L. Lillie was informed that it might take one or two days. Because of a crowded court calendar, she then ordered it continued until June 2.

Delays Sentence So Pair Can Help Fight Flood

TROY, Kas., April 15 (AP)—Two Elwood, Kas., men won clemency in court at Troy yesterday so they could go home and help fight the flood.

Norman Wood, 31, and Virgil Cruse, 17, were due to be sentenced on larceny charges. Judge John L. Gernon postponed sentence until next Tuesday and the charges against them were reduced from grand to petty larceny.

They are charged with stealing articles from cars parked near Sparks, Kas. Owners of the cars could not get them home because of flooded roads.

The judge told the men to come back for sentence next Tuesday.

The Missouri Flood Is a Robbery

By the time the Missouri River flood ebbs, untold millions of dollars in damage will have resulted. Literally hundreds of thousands of tons of topsoil will have started the long trek southward to the ocean at New Orleans—precious resources which can never be reclaimed.

Already more than 75,000 persons have been forced from their homes. During the coming weeks there will be thousands more as the Missouri flood rushes toward the also-flooding Mississippi. Farms, homes and entire towns are being wiped out. Desolation, destruction and death will be the monuments it leaves behind.

Monuments to what? To a senseless victory of nature over man's apathy and shortsightedness.

The resources and wealth rushing downhill to the sea belong to the American people. The floodwaters are robbing generations yet unborn.

Must this senseless toll of the labor and resources of America be taken endlessly, year after year? It is a high price to pay for sectional and political jealousies and to the pressure groups who have blocked every successive move to provide adequate preventive measures.

Whether we reside in Atlanta, San Francisco, New York City, or San Antonio, this damage is to the future of America, its human and material wealth. The losses are yours and ours, your children's and ours.

When will the people of this country demand that steps be taken to stop this wastage? When will the proposed Missouri Valley Authority get the go-ahead? The cost of stopping these floods would be small indeed compared to the constant attrition of the strength of the nation as a result of letting them occur.

If America continues to allow waste of her resources, particularly her soil resources, the nation cannot endure. Without soil, the nation will die. The record of civilization is filled with tragic reminders of this horrible fact.

Related to this flood on the Mississippi and the Missouri is the continuous battle now going on in Washington to destroy the soil conservation program as now set up.

It is inconceivable that Congress could destroy a service which has resulted in an agricultural revolution, particularly in the South—a revolution which has added to the sum total of our land resources and our productivity many times over its actual cost. The soil conservation program is an investment in the future of this country, in each living individual and in those yet to be born.

Senator Russell, along with other experts in the field, maintains that payment of part of the cost of certain conservation practices cannot be considered a subsidy.

It has been determined that approximately 2½ acres of soil at the present state of fertility in America are required to supply raw materials for clothing and shelter for each individual in the country. With the rapid growth of our population, we are already approaching a deficit in land required for a reasonable living standard. When the basic food supply, clothing, and shelter of each individual in the nation are endangered, these conservation leaders maintain that it is a national problem requiring nationwide measures. We agree.

Soil washed away from a Georgia hillside is as surely destructive of the national strength as is the current Missouri flood.

In both instances, the national responsibility cannot be evaded.

The future of America lies in saving our soil.

We must intensify, not lessen, our efforts in both soil conservation and flood control.

Freight Rate Hike Is Blow to Georgia

Although it comes as no particular surprise, the additional $15,000,000 freight bill handed to Georgia shippers Monday by the Interstate Commerce Commission sets us back a year in our efforts to achieve equality in rail rates with the North. It did not, fortunately, wipe out all the gains made during the last 20 years.

The increase was granted because the railroads were able to put up strong arguments over increased operating costs as a result of wage hikes in the industry and related industries.

Similar arguments have been used to gain increases in other public service industries—increases which add a little more in each case to the burdens of the consuming public.

In other words, the industries concerned are passing on to the consumer revenue losses from past wage and other cost hikes—an inevitable process.

It follows the familiar pattern. Wage hikes are followed by price increases in almost direct proportion. Who gains?

We are now in the process of seeing another spiral upward generated through the steel crisis. Even though the steel industry may be forbidden by government to pass all its wage increases immediately on to the consumer, eventually it will. Hikes in cost of production without a corresponding increase in that production will be made up at the expense of all citizens.

Increases in the cost of living engendered by this process destroy any gains made by individual groups under pressure of emergency. Further cheapening of the value of the dollar destroys savings and investments, lessens the amount of defense goods we may purchase for security without further tax increases, and adds to the necessity for deficit spending.

The added freight bill is a blow to Georgia's industrial growth. It will mean a hike in the cost of living for Georgia citizens. Just as surely the current troubles in steel, in telephone and telegraph service eventually will be translated into added costs of the items we have come to consider necessities.

Nobody gains from inflation!

We Can Use Krilium In Large Doses

Krilium is coming to Georgia!

This summer the University of Georgia College of Agriculture will test this new chemical which seems to work wonders with the soil.

Two hundred pounds of the soil restorer will be used in field research and in greenhouse experiments. Directing the tests will be an old hand with krilium, Dr. Francis Johnstone, "Ag" School horticulturist who pioneered in research with the stuff at Ohio State University.

Dr. Johnstone says that krilium's value lies in its ability to keep soil from packing, for making it porous and mellow, and for the long-time effect of its application.

At present the supply of this revolutionary soil conditioner is limited and the price is high—$2 a pound.

The agricultural experimenters hope that they can demonstrate the versatility of the chemical so as to increase the field of its usefulness and hence the demand for it. Then it can be manufactured in large quantities and the price will come down.

We wish them luck.

If krilium can do for the land what the "mycin" chemicals are doing in the attack on disease, then Georgia can use it in large doses.

Our state has acres and acres of sick soil.

A Dairyman Finds Rabies Can Be Costly

Don't try to tell Ralph Webb, an Elberton County farmer, that foxes do not spread rabies.

Through the Elberton Star, Mr. Webb has reported the loss, through rabies, of two of his herd of registered dairy cattle. Foxes were the source of the infection.

Mr. Webb said that to get into the cattle business he had spent considerable money building fences and preparing pastures. Losing $600 worth of his herd in a hurry, through rabies, is naturally discouraging. He has said as much.

There are other cattle raisers in Georgia who feel the same way.

If it comes to a showdown between the livestock industry and the foxes, the choice should not be difficult.

Definitely a Problem For the Mortar Board

We were a little startled a short while ago when we read that a Michigan brickmason turned dentist long enough to collect $70 for a set of plates before he was arrested for practicing dentistry without a license.

Now that we read masons in the St. Louis area are making $3.45 an hour, we are wondering how long it will be before some dentist starts laying brick.

Pulse of the Public

People Should Nominate the Candidates Instead of Politicians in 'Back Rooms'

Chamblee—It has been proposed in Congress that the people nominate the candidates for president and vice-president from each party by means of a presidential primary. This is known as the Douglas-Bennett Bill, having been proposed by Sen. Paul Douglas (Dem., Ill.) and Congressman Charles Bennett (Dem., La.).

I believe that it is more democratic to let all the voters have a chance to name their candidates than to have a few political bosses in the "smoke-filled back room" decide who will represent the party. Of what use is a vote if it must be cast for someone not desired by any but the back-room politicians.

This bill authorizes the attorney general to negotiate with Georgia as well as with the rest of the 48 states for the establishment of presidential preference primaries. The Federal Government will contribute 20 cents per voter to help defray the cost of holding the primaries.

The people of Georgia have a right to determine who will be our next president as well as the people of other states.

We don't mind paying taxes which we all know are necessary but we want to see something for it.

Let's get busy and do something about this road situation and no more toll roads!

Wage Increases And Production

Warthen—If organized labor would put the same zeal and determination into increasing production that they put into demanding an annual wage increase and give the millions of underpaid Americans time to improve their standards of living we would then have the beginning of the millenium.

Does any man in his right mind think the steel workers should have a wage increase of 26 cents per hour? How about the 25,000,000 farmers in the United States who work for industrial workers? Should these men have a wage hike? Time and again representatives of the Southern cotton growers have gone to Washington to ask for an increase in cotton, only to be turned down. During the period from 1924 to 1950, the annual income of a Georgia farmer averaged $495.

As organized labor must have an annual increase in wages without a corresponding increase in production, to where will the value of our American dollar descend?

Revision Suggested For Constitution

Rome—When you consider the President's unprecedented action in taking over the steel industry without benefit of law and the further recent killing of rights and powers of the states by the Supreme Court, and, finally, the arrogant, tyrannical powers that the federal agencies and bureaus have exercised over the people for the past 20 years, it would seem to be high time for the states to wake up and do something about this ever increasing power of the federal octupus by cutting off some of its tentacles and diluting the powers of those remaining.

The 48 legislatures could easily and promptly accomplish such a goal by acting for once in concert to pass the necessary resolutions instructing Congress to call a constitutional convention for the purpose of completely revamping a badly outmoded, abused and generally kicked-about Constitution.

The Fox Squirrels Had Been There

TATE MOUNTAIN—Below Jasper, where the road curved at the top of a ridge, we got the first good view of the mountains, and all the brat-rats started yelping like fox-terriers. "I see Sharp-top, I see Sharp-top," they kept yelling, as the landmark peak that looks like an ice cream cone came into view, and they kept up the clamor until I had to yell at them that if they didn't shut up we'd turn right around and go home and not spend Easter at the mountain at all. They didn't believe it, of course, but they quieted down, though they were still quivering and as excited as puppies, and one little boy, I found out, even had his swimming trunks on under his blue jeans, as if he was going to jump right out of the car into the lake.

But as we turned at Jasper and began the long climb over the dirt road to the mountain it was clear that there probably wouldn't be any swimming after all. The warmth of spring was still in the car, but when you stuck your hand out, the wind felt chill. The spring was still dragging its feet, reluctant to climb to these high cloudy places. The dogwood were just beginning to bud, where they stood in clearings on sunny slopes, but where the woods were thick the winter still dwelt.

And when we got to the lake the water looked hard, and blue, and cold, and a stiff, cold wind was riffling it. Oley, the man who looks after the place, said there hadn't been much warm weather yet, and the spring was slow in coming.

So, we didn't stop at the lake. And the house looked bleak, and silent, and lonesome, like all locked and silent houses always look. But it hadn't been lonesome in the house, nor uninhabited. Every field mouse and flying squirrel and chipmunk in Pickens County had made his winter residence there. They had held high carnival there all winter, from the looks of things, roistering the long winter away snug and safe from the storms.

The floors were thick with the shells of acorns they had dragged in from the woods, and in the middle of every bed was a little nest of shells where they had held feasts and banquets and revels of various kinds. They had gotten into the bookshelves, and with rare literary taste, had eaten the middle 100 pages out of "Gone With the Wind," to build their nests out of, ignoring other lesser works, such as the mystery stories and crossword puzzle books. They had gnawed neat little holes into the sofa cushions and had removed the stuffing from the cushions to make nests with, leaving the cushion hollow beneath the slip-covers, so that when you sat down on one you came into sudden, startling contact with the springs.

Where they took all this soft stuffing to make their nests there were no signs, and we puzzled over it awhile, until mama happened to remember about last year and the stove. So she snapped the stove off before it had time to heat up, and made me drag it out from the wall, and unscrew forty-odd screws or more, and take the top off and look. And sure enough, that's where they had built their nests. In the fibre-glass lining of the stove, the two-inch thick insulation that covers the top and the sides. They had burrowed through this, and it must have scratched them, for they had lined their passageways with tiny bits of "Gone With the Wind," and the cotton from the mattresses, and the stuffing from the sofa cushions, and there must have been a dozen families of them that had lived here in happy content, pausing only now and then to eat a half-bushel of acorns, and another chapter of "GWTW."

It only took about four hours' solid work on the part of all hands to get the house in liveable shape, and then it was night and we thought how nice it would be to sit on the porch in the warm evening and watch the moon come up over the mountain. But the moon didn't come up. The fog did, instead.

And the next morning the fog came on again, and then the rain, and after the rain came sleet, and the wet logs steamed and sizzled on the fire, filling the room with the smell of smoke.

And it wasn't what you might call a bright Easter, nor what we expected, but the kids liked it, as they like all things that take them away from school, and the home routine. And when it came time to leave, they didn't want to go.

A Rhyme a Day

How wonderful, indeed, it is
To see what smiles can do;
You smile at one, he smiles at you,
And so one smile makes two.
—Roxy in the Boston Herald.

I'll see how wonderful it is . . . to see what smiles will do . . . I'll turn my bland and beaming phiz . . . on all who come in view . . . The first who chanced to pass my way . . . a maiden coy and slim . . . was squired by a husky guy . . . and so I smiled at him . . . she flashed at me a wicked look . . . He hit me with his right . . . and followed with a hard left hook . . . I should have seen the light.

But next I sought to try my smile . . . on dames who walk alone . . . Before I'd walked another mile . . . a maid with face of stone . . . approached me and I smiled at her . . . then watched her scowl increase . . . and scurried off like a cringing cur . . . as she yelled, "Help! Police!"

Too dumb to learn from failures past . . . but fearful for my life . . . I thought I'd take it home at last . . . and try it on my wife . . . I opened wide our cottage door . . . smiled sweetly at her—THEN . . . I swooned as she let out a roar . . . "Get out! You're drunk again!"

Will She Survey The Tech Field?

The regents' vote to admit women to Georgia Tech was a serious decision made after much deliberation and with ample reason. The Red and Black, student publication at the University of Georgia, takes the action seriously and comments that the move should in no way affect enrollment at Georgia. The Red and Black editor says in stipulating that the Tech coed can study "engineering and related work," the regents have set up a program which will bar all women except those definitely interested in engineering.

While the collegiate press was weighing the situation carefully, other editors were having their fun.

"Coeds at Georgia Tech?" asks Ed Bernd of The Rome News-Tribune. "They'll make the campus more attractive, and if they want to study engineering, let them study it. But it won't seem right to hear soprano voices singing, "I'm a ramblin' wreck . . ."

Quimby Melton Sr. of The Griffin Daily News foresees a man-sized job for the dean of students or the registrar or whoever checks the admission applications.

What Quimby means is that it will be hard to tell which girls want to pursue engineering and which ones want to pursue engineers.

But the senior Mr. Melton is for the something new which will be added. He concludes, "We are all for the move to allow girls to enter Tech. The ladies, bless their sweet hearts, have just about taken over all the citadels of man. There are still 'No Man's Lands'—but a retreat for man seems to be a thing of the past.

"More power to the girls.

"I'm a ramblin' wreck from Georgia Tech,
I keep my lipstick near."

I HOPE that "related work" in engineering will include how to put a new washer in a leaky faucet, how to install a fresh fuse in place of one that's blown and how to remove the appliance plug from the wall receptacle without yanking on the cord.

And when the first Tech coed who marries an engineer appears on an audience participation show, the emcee will ask, "How did you meet your husband?"

SPEAKING OF TECHNICAL schools, the man got up to speak at an alumni banquet and said, "I am a graduate of Yale. I will speak on 'Y' for youth, 'A' for ambition, 'L' for labor and 'E' for enthusiasm."

He talked an hour and a half.

When he sat down, one member of the audience nudged another and said, "Thank goodness, he didn't graduate from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology."

Democrats' Theme: Peace, Prosperity

WASHINGTON—Despite some of the unsavory scandals that have been brought to light during the Truman administration, Democrats are counting on the high level of national prosperity to see them through the next presidential election—regardless of who the Republican nominee may be. "Peace and Prosperity" will be the dominant theme stressed by the Democrats after the election campaign gets under way. The Republicans will be talking about corruption and the mounting cost of government under a party long in power, but the Democrats will seek to offset this by pitching their campaign on a higher and more realistic plane.

The point they will drive home in the quest for continued governmental control is that, in spite of a minor war, high taxes and high prices, the American standard of living is better today—far better—than ever before in the past history of the nation.

It is an argument with popular appeal to the voters that will be hard for the Republicans to meet and overcome. Big Jim Farley, a practical politician of the old school, defined it in simple terms when he called the turn on the 1948 election at a time when the Democrats seemed doomed to certain defeat. "The American people," he sagely remarked, "have never turned an administration out of office at a time of great national prosperity."

The same applies, of course, to the party in power, whether the sitting administration is trying to succeed itself or not.

What the condition of the country is today is best described in a review just published in the April 11 edition of the United States News & World Report, a conservative business man's publication.

"American families," the magazine reports after a survey of business conditions, "at this time are enjoying the highest standard of living in history. They are eating better, wearing better clothes, using more labor-saving gadgets and buying more services than ever before."

Reducing this to more specific terms, the magazine goes on to say that: "The typical consumer now is living 37 per cent better than in 1929. The average individual, in other words, has been buying and using that much more goods and services than the typical consumer did in 1929—a year long remembered for easy spending and high living."

Prices have shot up in recent years, we are reminded, and so have taxes. But national income and production have risen even faster, with the result that people have more expendable income and savings than at any time in the past. This tells the story better than any figures and charts—we are living 37 per cent better than in the boom year of 1929! That means more automobiles, more refrigerators, more TV and radio sets, and more steaks for the average man to eat. If the picture is compared with conditions as they existed in the depression years, the contrast is all the more remarkable. It is astounding!

That is what the Republicans are up against. They realize they will have no walk-away with the election, whatever the issues they raise. It is the thing that gives the Democrats hope in a situation none too optimistic otherwise. Leaders of the party in power are counting heavily on the economic uplift to pull the coming election out of the fire for them.

Washington Post

"It is fish or cut bait for the administration's stabilization program. . . . Winds of controversy stirred up by the steel case threatened to blow over the jerry-built structure and prospects were that it would not escape this most severe test to date without considerable damage, if it managed to survive at all."—From the United Mine Workers Journal, April 1, 1952.

S.C. Session Pledge Due For Russell

Byrnes Keynotes Convention Today

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 15—(AP)—The state Democratic convention here Wednesday will name national convention delegates and probably pledge them for Senator Russell for the presidential nomination.

Governor Byrnes, one of the leaders of the Russell-for-President movement, is scheduled to be the convention's temporary chairman and keynote speaker.

RUSSELL ENDORSED

Russell's candidacy was endorsed by 29 of the 46 county Democratic conventions April 7.

South Carolina this year will have only 16 national convention votes against 20 it had in 1948. The rule is that a state has twice as many votes as the number of seats it holds in Congress plus a four-vote bonus if it supported the national Democratic ticket in the preceding presidential election.

In 1948, South Carolina turned its back on the national Democratic Party for the first time since reconstruction days and supported the States' Rights Democratic presidential ticket. The state party, which does not consider itself bound to the national party, instructed its successful presidential elector candidates to vote for the States' Rights candidate, the then Gov. J. Strom Thurmond.

STATES' RIGHTS STAND

A strong States' Rights stand again may be taken by the state convention, although President Truman's announcement that he won't seek re-election has altered the situation considerably.

The only apparent contest for any state party post is that for chairman of the executive committee.

State Sen. William P. Baskin of Lee County, chairman since 1947, is opposed by his fellow senator, Edgar A. Brown of Barnwell, a former chairman. Both claim victory.

Baskin said "I still consider that the issue is one of principle, and I stand where I stood four years ago — squarely behind States' Rights, and I am happy to see people stating that they favor the position which I fought for four years ago when our party supported States' Rights and states' sovereignty. I am unalterably opposed to any compromise of these principles."

Conant Stand On Private Schools Hit

New York Times News Service
Special to The Atlanta Constitution

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 15—President James B. Conant of Harvard University was attacked today for his recent statements opposing the growth of private secondary school education. The broadside came from keynote speakers attending the 49th annual convention of the National Catholic Educational Association.

Prominent educators here praised the role played by the Catholic schools, and called for their continued support. They held that the "dual system" of education was not devisive, but in keeping with the freedoms found in a democratic society.

Last week, in Boston, speaking before the American Association of School Administrators, Dr. Conant said private schools were divisive and were a threat to democratic unity. Other officials at the Boston conference joined the Harvard president in these views.

Speaking at the formal opening of the convention, in what was generally regarded as the keynote address, Dr. James M. O'Neill, professor of speech at Brooklyn College, bitterly opposed the Conant position. If put into effect, said Dr. O'Neill, it would lead toward totalitarianism.

"Government controlled education for all children and youths is the necessary foundation for all dictatorships," said Dr. O'Neill. "The suppression of religious education is the first concern of all dictators. Defense of religious education is everywhere the first frontier of freedom. Totalitarians have to take over the education of the children in order to have grown people who will consent to live without freedom."

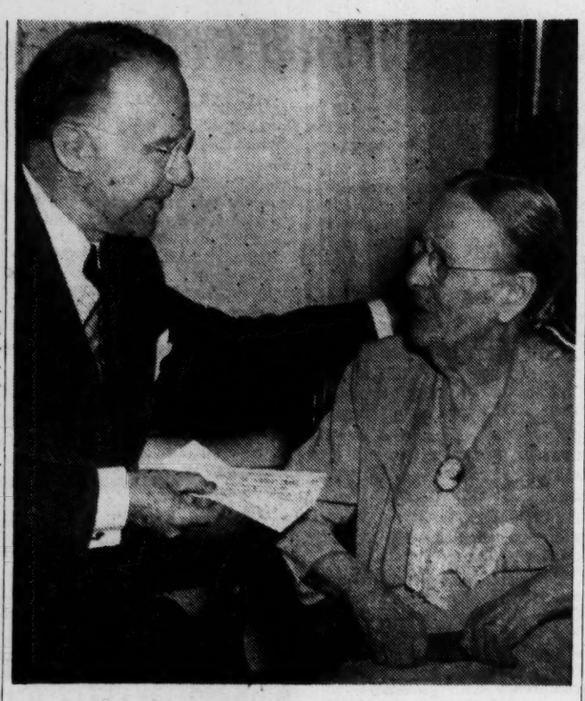

Film Tough Guy Knox Flung Off PackedTrain

CIVITA VECCHIA, Italy, April 15—(AP)—Film actor Mickey Knox of Hollywood was rushed to a hospital here today with head injuries and body bruises.

He was jostled off the platform of a crowded, moving train.

MRS. RUSSELL GETS DINNER TICKETS
Mayor Hartsfield and Presidential Candidate's Mother

Music for Russell Banquet Scheduled by Tech Band

Georgia Tech's band will provide the music when Senator Russell launches his presidential campaign at a fund-raising dinner in Atlanta April 25.

Georgians will eat steak while contributing funds to help put a Georgian in the White House.

The menu for the $50-a-plate dinner was announced by the Russell-for-President headquarters in the Biltmore Hotel Tuesday. It includes fresh Louisiana shrimp cocktail, Biltmore sauce, hearts of celery, olives, broiled choice sirloin steak, fresh string beans nicoise, rissole potatoes, heart of lettuce with special dressing, fresh strawberry short cake and coffee.

All the money raised, after expenses for the dinner, will be turned over to the National Russell-for-President Committee to finance Russell's campaign over the nation.

The senator's 84-year-old mother, Mrs. Richard B. Russell Sr. of Winder, has received two tickets and a personal invitation to attend the Russell-for-President dinner. Atlanta's Mayor Hartsfield delivered the tickets and invitation to Mrs. Russell at Winder.

Reservations may be made by mail, phone, or in person at the Russell-for-President headquarters, Suite 301, Biltmore Hotel.

UN Association Unit Formed Here

An Atlanta chapter of the American Association for the United Nations was organized Tuesday, and Phil B. Narmore, executive dean of Georgia Tech, was named chapter chairman.

Organizers of the new group said its purpose was "to study the basis of the machinery necessary for the development of permanent peace . . . and to carry on educational activities with the aim that the United States may participate in and co-operate with the various official agencies of the United Nations."

Beach Spree Trips 8 Youths

Atlanta's school superintendent Tuesday disclaimed any responsibility for eight Atlanta teen-agers whose week end holiday at St. Simons Island ended with "greetings" from the police.

Charges ranging from running stop signs and driving motor scooters without lights to malicious mischief and drunkenness were brought against the eight by Police Chief O. E. Burch of Glynn County who said he was "compelled" to take the action.

There were other reports of youngsters plunging into the surf without bathing suits and of property damage and theft of beach chairs.

But Miss Ira Jarrell, the Atlanta superintendent, said the eight were not there on a school-sponsored party.

"If they were students," she said, "they must have been there with their parents. Their parents should know what they're doing.

"If they had gone there as a school group, you can be sure we would have had plenty of people with them and known what they were doing. You can be sure, too, that they would have had their suits on when they went in bathing and would have driven their cars the way they should.

"We make them behave."

Burch said those over 17 posted bonds and were released, while three under 17 were turned over to Atlanta authorities. Judge W. W. Woolfolk of the Juvenile Court had not received the cases Tuesday afternoon.

British Okay Treaty With Italy, Bonn

them at the March 14 meeting in Paris to discuss the formation of the European army that something of this nature was required.

Therefore to prove their good faith in their pledges of moral support of the European army it was a pledge they were glad to give. In return they receive reciprocal pledges of support from each of the members of the European Defense Community — France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and the German Federal Republic.

SIMPLE, INGENIOUS

The method by which Britain associated herself with Germany as an ally in the EDC and at the same time assured the other members of that group that they could count on British help if a rearmed Germany ever broke loose was at once simple and ingenious. It is contained in one of the substantive clauses of the proposed treaty which provides that:

If at any time while the United Kingdom is a party to the North Atlantic Treaty one of the parties to the European Defense Community . . . or the European defense forces established under the treaty should be the subject of an armed attack in Europe the United Kingdom will in accordance with Article 51 of the United Nations charter afford the party or the defense forces so attacked all the military and other aid and assistance in its power.

17-YEAR PERIOD

As the Atlantic Treaty has 17 years to run, the new British guarantee to Italy and Western Germany extends over that same period. It is understood that Gibraltar and Malta and British forces in Austria are covered by the reciprocal pledge to Britain, but it seems the British forces in Berlin and Trieste are covered already by the Atlantic Treaty.

It is the British view that the new agreement gives the nations of Western Europe a firmer assurance of British assistance in the event of aggression than the Atlantic Pact provides for American intervention in the event of attack. Constitutionality, it was pointed out, the United States must wait for congressional action. Britain's pledge to Europe is of instant intervention.

That the British government's action went a long way toward overcoming the misgivings of European countries regarding British reluctance to take a direct part in the establishment of a European army was indicated by the text of a communique issued in London by the six EDC governments.

Their communique said the British government's decision would "establish close bonds between Great Britain and the projected European Defense Community. The undertakings given by the United Kingdom to the six states participating in the community are in fact of the same nature as the undertakings which these states are to give to each other within the framework of the community.

SPEED UP WORK

"The agreement thus foreshadowed will make it possible for the work now being done in Paris to be speeded up. This work should within a few weeks result in the drawing up of a treaty to be submitted for the approval and signature of the governments."

As the British government pointed out, the effect of the British proposal is that the Brussels treaty commitment to provied automatic military assistance in the event of attack will in the future apply as between the United Kingdom and the European Defense Community as a whole. The new reciprocal commitments apply particularly to West Germany and Italy which, while members of the EDC are not signatories to the Brussels treaty.

Doctor's Day Slated At Blood Center

Wednesday and Thursday will be "doctors' days" at the Red Cross Blood Center.

Members of the Fulton County Medical Society, who know the importance of blood transfusions, will visit the center, 848 Peachtree St., N. E., to donate blood for Atlanta hospital patients and for wounded servicemen in Korea.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at Davison-Paxon Co. from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Wednesday. It will visit the Georgia Military District, 699 Ponce de Leon Ave., N. E., from 2 to 8 p. m. Thursday, when reservists will donate.

Healthy Look

PARIS—(INS)—Parisiennes are busy preparing their "spring faces." According to Paris makeup experts women should look "healthy" this year. A healthy-looking complexion with flower-like cheeks and a full, bright, shiny ripe cherry mouth will be the new poetical beauty code.

'Warning' of Texas Aid, Dean Quits at Piedmont

Purcell said the dean was "attempting to create turmoil again."

Another trustee, Miss Josephine Wilkins, former state president of the League of Women Voters, quit last February over the TEA grants.

In a letter of resignation to Dr. Walter, Van Cleave stated that he hoped the trustees would reconsider their recent decision to accept the $500 monthly grants.

"But it has become clear to me that you are now prepared to accept ever-increasing funds from this source," his letter stated.

"To remain with this administration would condone the increasing influence of this interest on the college," the dean wrote.

Walter told The Constitution he knew nothing about Van Cleave's resignation and had no comment on the action.

In a mimeographed letter to the faculty and staff of the college, Van Cleave said "Dr. Walter has told me of his visits to the trustees of the TEA and has also told me of his expectation of new buildings on the campus which indicates to me he is ready to take large sums from this source. . . . I could not in good conscience work in this college if that came to pass."

He told the faculty that "President Walter has made it evident that he does not want me on the campus" and charged that recently "up north" Walter "told of the shortcomings of the dean."

The dean said his resignation would become effective after the summer quarter.

DRY BED TRAINING

Bed-wetting is a discouraging problem which affects many children and adults. Drugs do not help in the average case, and punishment or scolding often aggravates the condition.

BED-WETTING CORRECTED

Many forms of treatment have been tried with little or no success. Now a new method has been discovered which is usually successful in eliminating this humiliating habit in 3 to 4 weeks.

The method was invented by a doctor and is recommended by many physicians, and used by them for their own children. No drugs used.

Sawyer Expected To Order Steel Wage Boosts Paid

ately make appointments to the offices.

Collapse of negotiations, Steelman said, came after the United Steelworkers Union (CIO) and companies refused to yield in the slightest during seven days of almost constant meetings.

On the question of prices upon which wage talks hinge, it was reported the companies still were asking a $12-a-ton increase while the government was offering only $2 to $3, amount available under the Capehart formula in the 1951 Defense Production Act. The formula permits companies to obtain price increases to compensate for post-Korea cost increases up to July 26, 1952.

Nathan P. Feinsinger, chairman of the wage board, said there was no indication representatives of the steel industry or the union would meet on their own initiative.

With the President under heavy fire for seizure of the mills, Dr. Steelman expressed "regret the latest negotiations have not led to a contract between the two parties."

"It had been the President's hope," he said, "an agreement would be reached quickly so the steel plants might be returned at the earliest possible moment to the companies."

BILL ASKS RETURN

There were these other developments:

1. Senator Morse (Rep., Ore.) announced he will offer a bill tomorrow to return the mills immediately to owners on condition they put into effect wage recommendations made by the WSB, subject to such modifications as may be made in collective bargaining. Other provisions would bar imposition of the union shop as a condition of return and permit suits against the government by mills for damage claimed under government operation.

2. The Senate labor and public welfare committee, opening hearings on the steel dispute, heard Dr. Feinsinger defend the board's wage recommendations and the President's action in seizing the mills. Feinsinger testified that Charles E. Wilson, whose resignation as director of defense mobilization grew out of the WSB recommendations, was advised of what the recommendations would be the day they were formulated.

3. Senator Bridges of New Hampshire, Republican leader in the Senate, declared emphatically that labor committee hearings will not satisfy senators who believe seizure of the mills was "illegal and unconstitutional." He said these senators will continue to press "for full investigation by the judiciary committee."

"ABUNDANT PRECEDENT"

4. The Justice department declared there was "abundance of precedent" to sustain seizure of steel mills. The department filed a 69-page brief in Federal Court here in opposition to requests by five companies for preliminary injunctions against the presidential order. Temporary retrainers already have been denied.

The department statement, presented by Assistant Attorney General Holmes Baldridge, cited 12 seizures by President Truman and others by Presidents Lincoln and Wilson, all without enabling legislation. It argued President Truman's action in seizing the mills was not intended to settle a labor dispute, as management maintains, "but to insure uninterrupted production of steel during period of national emergency."

Much the same view was presented to the Senate labor committee by Feinsinger who, while refusing to state whether the President had inherent seizure power, maintained the action April 8 was "sound and right."

FEARED PRODUCTION LOSS

"Had he sought an injunction under the Taft-Hartley Act the next day, the nation would have lost several days of steel production at least," the WSB chairman said.

Only seven of 13 committee members were present and most were friendly, under leading questioning, Feinsinger explained his conviction that more than a week's steel production would have been lost. Before injunction can be requested under the Taft-Hartley Act, he said the President must name a fact-finding board which must find that a situation imperiling national health or safety exists.

He expressed doubt that, even if such a finding were made, an injunction could have been secured "to obtain 80 days of enforced peace after the union voluntarily had kept the peace for over 100 days."

The original strike date, set by the union, was Dec. 31. Postponed to permit negotiations under government sponsorship it ultimately was set for midnight April 8.

Board Incapable Of Suing, Court Says in Reversal

A county board of education "is not a natural person, partnership or corporation, nor an artificial person authorized by law as capable of suing," the State Supreme Court has held.

The high court thus reversed a Sumter County Superior Court ruling in a land dispute.

The lower court had ruled in favor of the Sumter County Board of Education against Hubert M. Parker in litigation over title to two acres of land.

In reversing that decision by declaring the board had no legal right to bring the suit, the Supreme Court added that "the procedure in such cases could be greatly simplified by the General Assembly, which alone has the power to do so, by conferring upon them (county school boards) the right to sue and be sued in the name of the county board of education."

Truman To Discuss Flood Relief With Governors

Home Finance Agency to provide temporary housing for refugees in that area.

The Missouri's flood crest, a monster such as has never before been recorded on the "Muddy Mo," today moved relentlessly along the Iowa-Nebraska reaches downstream from Sioux City, Ia.

The crest—actually a somewhat flat top on a broad several-hundred-mile long high water arc—is due in the Omaha-Council Bluffs area Thursday morning.

31.5 CREST EXPECTED

River forecasters stayed by their prediction of a 31.5 crest. Today's reading passed 27 feet. The previous record high was 24.6 feet in 1881. Dikes and flood walls were designed originally to withstand a 26.6 foot crest.

Thus Omaha and Council Bluffs, still not actually flooded, were on what Brig. Gen. Don G. Shingler, Missouri River division engineer, called "borrowed time."

Freeboard or safety margin gives shaky protection over 26.6 feet. And a mighty effort to add two feet and more of topping to this freeboard was just about complete tonight.

The peacetime army of soldiers, engineers, civilians and construction men mobilized in the Omaha-Council Bluffs levee-holding effort reached 8,000. The Fifth Army in Chicago began movement of another 2,800 troops from Camp McCoy, Wis.

14,600 B..TTLE FLOOD

For the entire Omaha River district, from the Dakotas to Southern Nebraska, the flood-fighting army exceeded 14,600 persons, according to Army engineers.

President Truman plans to fly over the flood area and arrive at Offutt Air Force Base, Strategic Air Command Headquarters just south of Omaha, sometime between 1 and 2 p.m. (EST) for his conference with governors.

With virtually all of the flood-hit Midwest already declared a disaster area, eligible for disaster loans, Rep. August H. Andresen (R-Minn) proposed in Washington an appropriation of one billion dollasrs for rehabilitation in the Midwest.

"We are spending billions abroad and we should use some of that money to take care of a situation created by such a disaster as the floods in this country," he said.

While the scene of flood crisis moved southward with the crest, bringing Missouri and Kansas squarely into the picture, the big question still hung over the Omaha and Council Bluffs levees.

Will they hold up under the historic assault?

The answer from engineers was guarded but optimistic.

Polio 'Shots' Expected To Hit Disease

emphasized that by every known criterion which can be applied, the new tests simulate what happens in a human population during a polio epidemic.

The animals were fed samples of polio viruses by mouth. Current medical opinion is that polio viruses enter the body through the mouth. Most previous animal tests have used an injection of viruses directly into nerve tissues, since the prevailing opinion has been that polio viruses grow and multiply only in those tissues.

Within four to six days after oral feeding, Dr. Horstmann reported, polio viruses were present in the blood in very high concentrations. Yet the animals showed no evidence of infection and nerve tissues showed no deterioration. Only after the lapse of three to seven days did the animals become paralyzed.

Carrying the research a step further, Dr. Bodian reported that during the benign stage, polio viruses in the blood are extremely vulnerable to destruction by naturally-occurring disease fighters called antibodies which appear in the blood following challenge by the invading infection.

If the beasts had been "protected" against polio by the inoculation of a very small dose of a human blood fraction containing antibodies from a recovered polio victim, paralysis did not develop, Dr. Bodian said. These protected animals, who had a man-made or passive immunity to the virus, were never crippled because the polio germs were killed in the bloodstream before they had traveled to and destroyed the nerve fibers.

Dr. Bodian reported that the amount of antibody required to protect chimpanzees against paralysis is amazingly small, that even a "weak" human vaccine, such as is now available, might protect children and that small doses of the gamma globulin fraction of human blood should be sufficient. A weak vaccine or a small dose of antibodies should be enough to halt polio during the first, benign stage, he reported.

Driscoll replied Taft used "the words of a poor loser" and called on the delegate candidates to support the winner of the popularity contest.

DRISCOLL SLATE IN FRONT

An organization slate of 10 at-large delegate candidates, headed by Driscoll, was running ahead of a group pledged to Stassen and of independent candidates. Organization candidates apparently were ahead in district races where 28 were picked.

With more than half of the state's voting districts tabulated, Eisenhower was getting nearly 57.3 per cent of the popularity vote, Taft 40 per cent and Stassen 2.7 per cent.

From a percentage standpoint this was larger than the general's opening primary victory over the same two opponents in New Hampshire in March. There he got slightly more than 50 per cent of the vote and Taft 38 per cent.

TAFT FRIENDS CAMPAIGN

In Nebraska, where Eisenhower and Taft were write-in opponents, Taft got 36 per cent and Eisenhower 29 per cent of the popularity vote.

After his blast at Driscoll, Taft closed his headquarters here and abandoned plans to stump the state. Some of his friends continued to campaign for him on an unofficial basis.

Because of these circumstances, the Taft camp could claim it had made a substantial showing and that the Ohioan's chances for the nomination were not materially damaged by the expected final New Jersey result.

IKE FORCES CLAIM WIN

However, Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas, national director of the Washington Eisenhower-for-President headquarters, noted that the general didn't campaign in New Jersey either.

"The trend clearly indicates that the Republican voters of New Jersey want Ike as their nominee," he said in a statement issued from the capital.

With Driscoll's organization bucking the line for him, Eisenhower manufactured a large share of his margin over Taft in Essex County (Newark).

SEN. SMITH VICTORY

Taft forged ahead in Bergen County, a Republican area and carried the industrial city of Passaic by six votes over the general.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith, Republican incumbent who remained neutral in the presidential popularity contest, easily won renomination. He defeated Carl Ring, a Rutherford attorney.

In the November election, Smith will oppose Archibald S. Alexander who was unopposed for the democratic nomination. Alexander resigned last week as undersecretary of the Army to campaign.

BACKS STEVENSON

Alexander, openly supporting Stevenson for the democratic presidential nomination, headed an at-large slate of delegates that was unopposed in that party's primary.

However, Kefauver's 61,007 vote in one-third of the state's precincts might influence some delegates to support him.

Taft's Tongue Slip Thanks Ike Backer

PITTSBURGH, April 15—(AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft started his noon address in this steel center today with a slip of the tongue.

When he got up to speak he turned to Allegheny County District Attorney James F. Malone, who had introduced him, and said:

"I want to thank Jim Fulton. . ."

The audience gasped. Rep. James Fulton is the local leader of the Eisenhower-for-president forces. Taft quickly recovered, corrected himself and went on with his speech.

Decatur Meeting On Slums Slated

The Decatur City Commission will meet with members of the Decatur Housing Authority Tuesday to discuss plans for clearing Negro slum areas in Decatur and building additional low-cost housing units, Mayor A. Mell Turner said Tuesday night.

The commission postponed action Tuesday on two recommendations by the Decatur Planning Board. Action on the recommendations will be taken in next week's meeting.

nessed the action and Mr. Truman said nothing to them.

It was apparent Mr. Truman was saving the drama and the ceremony for April 28, when the page of history is turned.

Forty-eight nations besides Japan signed the treaty Sept. 8, 1951, at the conference in San Francisco. Ratification by only two more countries is needed to put the treaty into effect April 28, and these are en route to Washington.

CANADA OKAY DUE

Japanese Peace Treaty—Canada was expected to deposit ratification at the State department tomorrow. Ratification of France, Ceylon and Pakistan were reported en route, so that sufficient deposits are pending to make certain the treaty will come into force.

Article 23 of the treaty provides it will become effective when Japan, the United States and any five of the following countries deposit instruments of ratification with the United States: Australia, Canada, Ceylon, France, Indonesia, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Pakistan, The Philippines and the United Kingdom. Deposits have been made by Japan, the United Kingdom, Australia and New Zealand. The United States will make formal deposit April 28.

Security treaty with Japan—This treaty will go into effect along with the peace treaty April 28.

Security treaties with Australia and New Zealand—These will become effective as soon as documents signed today by the President arrive in Canberra, Australia, for formal deposit.

Mutual defense treaty with the Philippine Republic — The Philippine Congress has not ratified the treaty but is debating it. It will go into effect when the Philippine government completes ratification and the two governments exchange the documents formally in Manila.

Expressway Bond Vote Moved Back to July 4

By HERMAN HANCOCK

Atlanta and Fulton voters will cast ballots no sooner than Tuesday, July 1, on a $12,000,000 bond issue to complete the Expressway and provide other facilities, it was learned Tuesday.

City Clerk Joe Richardson said July 1 is the earliest he can complete arrangements for the voting and still meet legal requirements.

Mayor Hartsfield said the new date is agreeable to him and Fulton Commission Chairman I. Gloer Hailey expressed confidence the county commission will co-operate with the city in setting the date of the election.

Both city and Fulton County had agreed tentatively on June 2 for the joint election but law requires voting machines be kept intact for 30 days after each election and the state primary is scheduled May 14.

Richardson said it will require another two weeks to make ready for the election since a city registration list must be prepared for those areas of Atlanta lying in DeKalb County.

Commissioner Tom Camp agreed with Hailey.

License Hearing

Opposition to permits for two new liquor stores near the Ford plant will be heard at a meeting of City Council's police committee at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Police Station.

Capt. A. C. Bryant, committee investigator, said James S. Matrangos has petitioned for a store at 3895 Tuskegee, S. W., and that Donald J. McIntyre seeks to open a store at 3726 Macon Highway, the intersection of the old Jonesboro Rd. and Highway 41.

Delinquents Named

Atlanta taxpayers who have not filed 1952 returns were warned Tuesday of the May 1 deadline by city tax assessors. In addition to normal penalties for tardiness, home owners who occupy their premises will be subject to loss of a $2,000 homestead exemption for 1952 if they fail to get under the wire.

HAPPY REUNION—Barbara Jean Scroggs, 10, had a happy reunion Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Laura Fay Scroggs, after the child journeyed here by bus from Murphy, N. C., and then became lost. Due to a misdirected letter, Mrs. Scroggs did not know the child was coming. Police efforts finally found the mother and all ended happily.

GETS SCOUT'S HIGHEST MANAGER AWARD

H. Smith Richardson Presents Silver Antelope to Marvin G. Pound

Explorer Scout, 17, Stirs 1,000 Executives With Talk

Men behind the Boy Scouts in Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida met in Atlanta Tuesday to discuss plans for strengthening the Scout movement and pay tribute to their leaders.

But a 17-year-old Explorer Scout from South Carolina who told them what scouting means to him stopped the show.

He was W. A. (Bill) Sibley Jr., who attended last year's World Jamboree in Austria and made the official Scout report to President Truman on his return. His speech was simple, straight from the shoulder and forceful and it earned him a three-minute ovation from the 1,000 regional and council executives in the audience.

"If more mothers and fathers could see scouting as I have seen it, he said, "there would be more love and admiration in every family and more people with a higher purpose in life. . ."

Also honored at the Region Six Boy Scout Convention were Marvin G. Pound, Sparta banker and insurance executive, and Harold E. Gillette of St. Petersburg, Fla., who were awarded the Silver Antelope, highest award for outstanding regional Scout service. The award was made by H. Smith Richardson, chairman of the Silver Antelope Committee.

The session also marked the first presentation of the W. D. Campbell Award for outstanding council service in recruiting and maintaining scouting membership. It went to the Tuscarora Council from Goldsboro, N. C., and was accepted by the council's past president, Sam Stallings.

Campbell, who was also installed as chairman of the region for the coming year, succeeding himself, presented the silver Tiffany cup to the winning council. Other officers installed were vice-chairman Marvin Pound, H. M. Collier of Griffin, P. T. Watson of Wilson, N. C.; R. B. Fuller of Mulberry, Fla., and John Hamrick of Charlotte.

Talk Collapse Spurs Wire Union Rally

Striking Western Union operators and clerks will gather Wednesday afternoon for a mass rally at Municipal Auditorium, local AFL telegraphers chief Max L. Johnston has announced.

He issued the call as national negotiations collapsed Tuesday after a short session. Further strike plans will be made at the meeting, Johnston indicated.

Meanwhile, the Federal Conciliation Service announced it has arranged a joint company-union session Thursday in New York in hope of settling the 13-day-old telegraph strike.

No settlement was in sight Tuesday in the Western Electric walkout, but company officials said "things are quiet" and there is no picketing in Southern Bell territory except in New Orleans where 3,000 workers have walked off jobs charging a company "lockout." Bell denies the charge.

AVAILABLE FOR LEASE
Naval Industrial Reserve Shipyard
(Former Cramp Shipyard) Philadelphia, Pa.
INVITATION

The District Public Works Officer, Fourth Naval District, invites proposals for the leasing of the shipbuilding, ship repair and machine facilities of the Naval Industrial Reserve Shipyard, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, formerly held under lease by the American and Foreign Warehouse Company, Inc.

This Shipyard was operated during World War II by the Cramp Shipbuilding Corporation for the construction and repair of naval vessels. Subsequently, the Shipyard has been leased from time to time by the Department of the Navy and utilized for ship repair, industrial manufacture and warehousing. The facilities are now occupied by various tenants whose use can be terminated forwith by the Government.

Written proposals, in duplicate, for the lease of these facilities, in whole or in part, should be addressed to the District Public Works Officer, Building No. 1, U. S. Naval Base, Philadelphia 12, Pennsylvania. Each proposal is to be complete in itself; more than one proposal may be submitted. Proposals received after 11.00 A. M., EST., May, 1952, will not be considered. No proposal predicted upon the award of Government work or upon the Government furnishing or assisting in furnishing additional facilities will be considered. No proposal in the nature of a management contract will be considered.

FACILITIES

The Shipyard is located on the west bank of the Delaware River, bounded by Dyott, Norris, Richmond and Cumberland Streets. It is improved by numerous buildings, including machine and fabrication shops, storage buildings, shipways, piers, cranes and a graving dock. All utilities are available including processed steam and compressed air. Numerous machine and hand tools are available within the shipyard.

LEASE

As guides to prospective leases, it is suggested that proposals include: (a) a definition of what portion of the facilities are desired in the event less than the whole is sought; (b) a statement of the proposed use or uses; (c) term of use; and (d) a guaranteed minimum monetary amount to be expended on long term maintenance and/or paid cash rent, as the Department may from time to time direct.

Those proposals which appear to be in the public interest or will promote the national defense, will be the subject of further colaboration and negotiation.

In any event, the proposal should provide that (a) all costs of adoption, inventory and maintenance (other than long term) are to be borne by the lessee without limitation; (b) insurance in such amounts and types (for example, fire and extended coverage, boiler explosion and third party property damage) as the Department may determine necessary will be procured and maintained at lessee's own expense.

The Department reserves the right during this or any other period of national emergency, to terminate the lease in whole or in part, without liability; this right of termination and repossession extends to each and every building, piece of equipment or hand tool.

Request to inspect the premises or to procure more specific information concerning the facilities should be addressed to the District Public Works Officer.

FABRIC THAT HOLDS ITS PRESS

...even in the rain!

Milliken's DACRON*-WOOL Tropical

* DuPont's trademark for its polyester fiber

Milliken takes DuPont's fabulous Dacron and scientifically blends it with the right amount, the right kind of wool (55% Dacron – 45% Fine Wool) . . . to give you a summer suiting that performs in an almost incredible manner.

You can get drenched in the rain and the trouser crease remains sharp. You can wear Milliken's Dacron-Wool continuously, without pressing, through a string of summer's stickiest days . . . and still look neat and presentable. Even when you travel, wrinkles fall out overnight. The fabric cleans easily, too . . . greatly reduces cleaning and pressing bills.

Milliken's Dacron-Wool is unusually cool – actually 20% lighter and twice as porous as most summer suitings. Yet it's a stronger, longer-wearing fabric, with a soft, luxurious feel . . . styled in many refreshingly new pattern effects and colors.

You probably saw in LIFE last year how a Milliken Dacron-Wool suit survived a sensational hose-drenching . . . and still retained its press. Last summer 5,000 men were fortunate enough to obtain suits of this fabric. When 900 were asked in a DuPont survey last fall, "Will you buy again?", their enthusiastic "YES" was overwhelming.

Dacron is still in limited supply . . . so be sure to get your suit right away.

WHERE TO FIND SUITS OF MILLIKEN'S DACRON-WOOL

Milliken, with 87 years' experience in quality textiles and the originator of the Dacron-Wool blend, calls this fabric VISA. It's available through the country's finest stores in suits and slacks of a number of leading clothing manufacturers. The fabric is not identified as Milliken's in every case, but you will find the Milliken label in Viracle suits by Hart Schaffner & Marx, Stratoweigh suits by H. Freeman & Son, Terrapin suits by Eagle Clothes, and Froslax slacks by Esquire Sportswear. Also in men's sport shirts and ties by Damon Creations, and in women's suits – Marvira by Ben Gaynes, Inc.

Suits range from about $55 to $69.50, according to the make. Slacks, about $20. Sport shirts, $18.50. Ties, $2.50. See them at your favorite local store – or write us for the names of the retailers nearest you.

Why Milliken selects wool—and only wool—to blend with Dacron. Because, to date, no other fiber combined with Dacron produces a fabric with all the amazing plus features of Milliken's 55% Dacron – 45% Wool!

WHICH TROUSER LEG WAS SOAKED IN WATER OVERNIGHT?

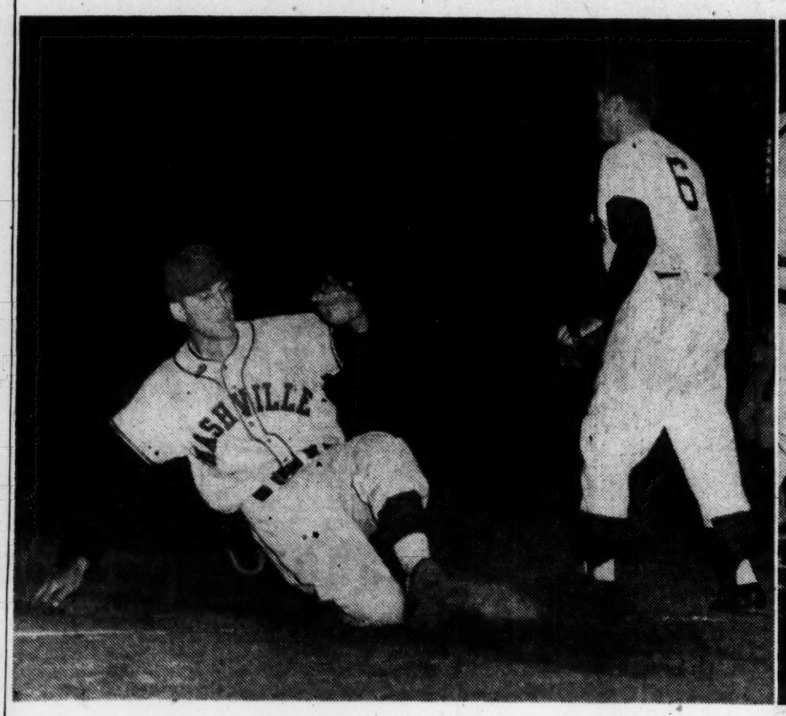

We couldn't tell ourselves! When the Better Fabrics Testing Bureau showed us this unretouched photograph, we had to ask them which trouser leg of Milliken's Dacron-Wool had been soaked in water overnight and left to dry out, without pressing! Can you tell? (It's the model's left leg.)

Vols' Poland Senses Third

Hugh Poland's footsteps on the ramp rattled as an echo through the vacant insides of Ponce de Leon Park. He made the sharp turn and came headon with the face of an old friend he hadn't seen for years. He whooped and his friend whooped, and the sound bellied out through the cavernous underside of the stands as if someone had delivered a roll on the drums.

There's nothing quite so vacant as an uninhabited baseball park, anyway, and the home of the Crackers was almost totally without humanity. The Crackers and the Nashville Vols were there, pulling on their business suits for a parade through the city. Occasionally, you would hear a laugh or an oath spit out of the two dressing rooms, but all you could see was Poland and his friend, Johnny Rucker.

Bisher

"So they couldn't keep the old man in the pasture, eh?" Poland said, and he clapped Rucker on the shoulders.

"Nah, had to get back," the returned native said. "You know how it is."

"How you doing?"

"Well, it was kind of slow at first. There was a time when I was afraid I wasn't going to be able to make it. But I'm all right now, I think." It was quiet for a moment, and then Rucker exploded: "Well, you old sonofagun, how've you been getting along?"

After a few exchanges and some more backslapping, we were on our way down the ramp again. "He was my roommate at Jersey City and with the Giants, Johnny was," Poland explained. "Then I was traded to the Braves, me and Connie Ryan for Ernie Lombardi. A real prince of a guy, that Johnny."

—Out of the Jungles of Kentucky

This was the new manager of the Vols, a tall, erect fellow with 197 pounds of flesh appropriately distributed, hair brownish black, the leathery face of the outdoor athlete. He's the kind the trade people call a solid baseball man, even of disposition, firm, but easy to know and work for if you live by the rules.

Frank Rickey, whose keen judgment and knowledge of the American jungles provided his brother Branch with the layer foundation for his original St. Louis Cardinal chain gang, flushed this son of a Dutch-Irish family out of the Kentucky foothills in the middle '30s. Poland had been a resourceful athlete at Western Kentucky College, football, basketball and baseball man. Ed Diddle was (and still is) the basketball coach, and those were his formative days as a national genius in the field.

Poland pounded around in the minor regions of the Cardinal family, such points as Asheville, Huntington, Elmira, and Rochester. He never hit quite often enough to get a tumble from above, until the war came and he fell into the Giants' family. As the military dug in, the Giants called him up from Jersey City the same year that Rucker, up and down before, bounced back to the big stem.

Three years ago, Carl Hubbell, the old screwball artist who now directs the Giants' farm chain, anointed him a manager and dispatched him to Trenton, N. J., from there to Sioux City, where the floods are now raging, and then to Ottawa last year. When the Vols made the switch from Cubs to Giants in the winter, it was the natural thing to do to call in Poland from 50 miles across the Kentucky line in Guthrie.

—For Power, Rhodes and Marshall

"I thought I was coming down South and getting away from this cold weather," he said, a-shiver without his topcoat. "This reminds me of the opener in Sioux City. We paraded downtown just like this while it was spittin' snow."

The Vols, he thought, would be a pretty sound team. The pitching looks good, Bert Flammini, Vinnie DiLorenzo (23-8 at Jacksonville last year), Jim Atchley, Pete Modica and Al Worthington, for instance. The power, and in Sulphur Dell it's essentially left-handed, would have to come from Jim Rhodes, who busted 31 homers at Rock Hill, and Jim Marshall, a kid over his head at Oakland last year but rich in native talent, and there's always Bama Ray.

"I guess I'd rate it about third place," Poland concluded. "Might go all the way, if the two power boys come through, and if the pitching is as good as it looks . . . you know, if it all works out.

"But this weather, we can't beat it. And I came off without a pair of heavy underwear to go with my uniform."

Earl Mann, however, committed a more grievous error a couple of years ago. He had come up with an Eskimo pitcher that spring, and while the chap was no sensation, opening night that year would have been just his meat. It was colder than a well-digger's feet and the people huddled in the stands around flickering bonfires to compare goose pimples. Mann had committed his sin just a few days before. He'd released his Eskimo pitcher.

Garver Blanks Detroit, 3-0; Bums, Indians Take Openers

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—Brooklyn and Cleveland, preseason pennant favorites, got off winging Tuesday as the 1952 major league season got under way.

Cold, blustery rains prevented the defending champion New York Giants and Yankees from playing, but all other teams managed to get in their first game despite chilly, dismal weather.

Opening day proved a jinx to the home clubs as all five hosts went down to defeat. The Dodgers began their bid for the National League flag, shading the Braves in Boston, 3-2. The Indians also moved in the right direction in quest of the American League title, beating the White Sox in Chicago by the same 3-2 score.

Boston's Red Sox proved an ungracious guest, shutting out the Senators, 3-0, in Washington before President Harry S. Truman and 25,865 less distinguished patrons. Rogers Hornsby's revamped St. Louis Browns embarrassed the home-town Detroit Tigers before Queen Juliana of The Netherlands and 43,112 cash customers, blanking the Bengals, also by a 3-0 count.

Chicago's Cubs had to wait 10 innings but got the deciding run on Gene Hermanski's pinch-hit single to eke out a 6-5 victory over the Reds in Cincinnati before 28,517 blanketed and overcoated fans.

A two-run single by Roy Campanella highlighted a three-run fifth inning and gave the Dodgers their initial win. Preacher Roe scattered seven hits to gain the hurling duel from southpaw Warren Spahn. The hit was the third straight for Campanella. Billy Cox had singled in the first Brooklyn run. A homer by Sam Jethroe accounted for

Ed Baskin To Captain Tech Track

Coach Norris Dean disclosed Baskin's selection. He also revealed that Ed's pitch of 205 feet, three and one-half inches in a dual meet with Florida over the week end eclipsed by an inch and a half a toss made 23 years ago by a freshman, Doug Graydon.

Two other new records came to light in the wake of Tech's loss to the Gators. Montgomery sophomore Fred Berman's shotput of 50 feet, five and three-quarters inches bettered George Hills' 1947 heave of 49 feet, one-half inch.

Bobby Barron, a freshman from Canton, high-jumped six feet, three and one-half inches to smash the old six feet, two and three-quarters inches standard of Perrin Walker.

Tech's second dual meet of the season comes Saturday with Tennessee in Knoxville.—POPE.

New Hornets Launch 3-A Play Today

Hapeville High will be fielding an almost completely new team under new Coach Ray Howard, one-time West Fulton aide, when the Southern division of Region 3-A launches the 1952 baseball campaign Wednesday.

Only second-baseman Gerald Mays, who may do some doubling in catching brass, left-fielder Jack Demarest and third-sacker Donald Rickett of the current crew saw action for Bill Campbell's 1951 nine. All will don gear when the Hornets play host to Fairburn's Campbell in the Wednesday 4 p. m. season-launcher.

That trio and Jimmy Smith, a strong-armed catcher who has been hitting hard, have been standouts in drills.

Atlanta Falls In 12-4 Rout

Dusty Rhodes' Bat Booms As 5,788 Fans Fret, Freeze

By JESSE OUTLAR

The Crackers have been thoroughly inaugurated. They stumbled twice in the inaugural Sunday at Mobile and fell flat on their faces Tuesday night as the Vols from Nashville spoiled the Ponce de Leon opener, 12-4.

A chilled crowd of 5,788 was on hand to see rookie Ray Crone deliver the first official pitch. However, few of them braved the 40-degree temperature to see the other four Cracker pitchers.

Dusty Rhodes, a red-hot rookie from Rock Hill, S. C., was the Vol trigger man in a 15-hit assault on the five Crackers forced to toe the firing line.

The 23-year-old outfielder socked a pair of homers, a triple and drove in four runs. His first circuit clout started Crone spinning in the third, a horrendous frame in which the Vols counted six runs. He pole-axed Joe Payne for a triple in the fifth and a round-tripper in the seventh with one on.

Gliding behind such terrific stick support, Vince DiLorenzo and veteran Pete Modica shackled the Crackers with six safeties. DiLorenzo controlled the Crackers, but couldn't control his curve. After walking nine, he departed in the fourth.

Gets 10-Year Sooner Pact

NORMAN, Okla., April 15—(AP)—Football coach Bud Wilkinson, an outspoken critic of insecurity in his profession, has a new 10-year contract as coach and athletic director at the University of Oklahoma.

The contract, made public only Tuesday, was prepared by Wilkinson's attorney last February, the board of regents said. It was effective as of last January.

He was paid $15,000 a year under a five-year contract which still had two years to run. Regents indicated the same salary will continue.

Explaining why the pact was kept secret, Wilkinson said:

"Professors are hired all the time without fanfare. Why should a coach be any different?"

Wouldn't you know it? 5,788 fans brave virus to see the Crackers open, and a Blind Tom's wife wins the prize.

Sure enough, Mrs. Joe Ray Poole, tall, attractive brunette wife of a Southern Association umpire (working elsewhere this frigid Tuesday evening) drew the ticket entitling her to throw out the first pitch of the Atlanta home season. Host manager Dixie Walker and Nashville's Hugh Poland gave grudging approval of the lady's motion and the thing was underway.

It was a rough night all around for Cracker faithful. The temperature was 44 degrees at game-time. Then Nashville belted the home team . . . For one persistent character, though, this was old stuff . . . L. V. Hughes, telephone company worker for 44 years, now a realtor, was watching his 50th straight Cracker opener. "This isn't the coldest by a long shot," he announced, entering the park with the Theron L. Whites, brandishing "bonus" tickets. "Why, in 1943, when Joe E. Brown threw out the first ball, wearing a fur coat and a squirrel cap, it was 27 degrees." Hughes was present when the Atlanta team opened in 1902, and Nashville's Whitney Guese shut them out, 2-0 . . . All of which did little to cheer up Cracker groundkeeper Hub Hubbard. He quit a sick-bed just Tuesday morning "to come out here and look after things."

Steam rose in the tense Atlanta dressing room, but Al Aucoin and Bob Montag sat clamly in adjoining stalls, playing "Battleship." . . . Dixie Walker, writing down his line-up, wore two pair of flannel leggings. . . . Johnny Rucker put on

Charity Meet Pits Barnes, Harvie Ward

Tommy Barnes, who lost out to Harvie Ward in the recent Dogwood golf tournament, will have a chance to get a measure of revenge when he teams with pro Richard Beckmann against Ward and pro Elmer Reed in a charity exhibition match Friday afternoon at Marietta Country Club. Starting time is 2 p. m.

The exhibition, which is sponsored by Marietta Kiwanis Club, will be followed by exhibition of trick shots by Paul Hahn, the young pro who made such a hit at the Augusta Masters clinic.

Hahn's show is scheduled for 5:30 p. m. Hahn is also booked for an exhibition at Atlanta's Meadowbrooks Country Club Saturday at 5 p. m.

Southpaws Duel in 4-AA At Decatur

Region 4-AA high school baseball openers which were to send Marist to Decatur and Marietta to Russell Tuesday were postponed because of cold weather along with all DeKalb County League games. All plan to play Wednesday at 4 p. m. if weather permits.

A duel of southpaws is slated for Decatur with Charlie Snitzer going for Bill Orgain's invaders, veteran Al Cogbill for the home forces.

DeKalb games send Druid Hills to Avondale, Clarkston to Southwest DeKalb, Chamblee to Lithonia and Stone Mountain to Tucker.

Purdy Wins Crosby Medal, Defends Title

H. N. Purdy, Jr., will open defense of his Bing Crosby trophy this week end at College Park Golf Club.

From Constitution Wire Reports

Pitcher Al Corwin, whose five victories late in the season helped the New York Giants clinch the 1951 National League pennant, was sent on option to the Minneapolis Millers of the American Association Tuesday.

The Giants, rained out of their Tuesday opener with the Philadelphia Phillies, also optioned Gail Hanley to Tulsa, Okla., of the Texas League. Henley batted .281 in 61 games with Sioux City last year. Before joining the Giants last year Corwin won two and lost four for Ottawa of the International League as a relief specialist.

Baseball's oldest minor league, the class AAA International, opens its 69th season Wednesday. Given good weather, approximately 40,000 fans are expected for the four openers.

Bob Williams, former Notre Dame quarterback now playing with the Chicago Bears, will be married in Baltimore May 3. He will wed Maria Anita Galvin of Baltimore.

Australia's Frank Sedgman won his opening match in Italy's International tennis tournament Tuesday, easily beating Mario Belardinelli of Italy, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3. The tournament is being staged in Rome.

First baseman Fenton Mole was acquired by Syracuse Chiefs of the International League on option from the New York Yankees. Mole had been assigned temporarily to the Yankees' Kansas City club of the American Association.

Funeral rites were held in Tampa, Fla., Tuesday for Charles E. (Pete) Norton, sports editor of the Tampa Tribune, who died Saturday.

Conversion won the feature event of Golden Gate field, paying $14.80, $6.70 and $3.80. Second place Tuzado returned $3.20 and $2.40, and Almighty paid $3.40.

Walt Wrona, reserve catcher the past four seasons for Tulsa's Texas League Oilers, has been signed by the Oklahoma City Indians.

three in a row, the Crackers will rely on Art Fowler to put them in the victory column Wednesday at 8:15. Jim Atchley, also a right-hander, goes for the Vols.

The Vols iced the decision and sent most of the icy fans home with their six-run explosion in the third. Crone, promising all spring, blew higher than Mt. Everest in that round.

Ziggy Jasinski, five-nine speedster, outfooted an infield single to start the 12-man parade. He stole second, when no one covered, as Crone looked helplessly on. John Kropf's double shoved Ziggy home, and Rhodes followed with a prodigious blast over the tin in right-center.

In rapid order, Jim Marshall singled, Bob Boring doubled, and Bama Ray was purposely passed. As a departing gesture, Crone served a two-run single to Rube Novotney, and Stu Alton was called. Jasinski's second hit of the inning brought the sixth man home.

An error by Vern Petty, two walks and a two-run poke by DiLorenzo in the next heat finished Alton's first stint as a pro. John Perkovich was the next Cracker tosser, but was lifted for a pinch-hitter after retiring the side.

Joe Payne was the fourth hurler in the lengthy line, posting Vol zeroes in his first two innings. A single by Kropf, who stole second, Rance Pless' scoring single and Rhodes' homer over the second tier rocked Joe for three in the seventh.

Final Vol run came off Joe Reardon in the ninth on a single by Kropf, an infield out and an error by Charlie Williams.

Not that it matters too much, but here's how the Crackers counted. Two walks, sandwiching a single by Howard Boles, and Al Aucoin's double-play dribbler got one over in the third. DiLorenzo pushed two free markers home with five passes in the fourth; John Rucker's pinch-hit double, an infield out and Williams' RBI fly furnished the final run in the eighth.

Churchill Downs To Add 400 Front Row Boxes

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 15 (AP)—Churchill Downs race track will add 400 front row boxes as soon as the War Production Board gives its O. K.

President Bill Corum made the announcement Tuesday following a meeting of the Downs' board of directors.

It is hoped the boxes will be completed in time for the 1953 Kentucky Derby.

All officers were re-elected. They are: Corum; William Veeneman, chairman of the board; Stanley Hugenberg, executive vice president; Louis J. Herrmann, vice president; J. H. Waterman, treasurer; Sam H. McMeekin, secretary, and Russell Sweeney, resident manager.

Adams Must Be Ace If Fitzgerald Clicks

Smell of Baseball Smoke Routs Out Old Firehorse

By BILL McGROTHA
Constitution Sports Writer

FITZGERALD, April 15—On one of the most interesting experiments in minor league baseball will swing success chances of the Fitzgerald Pioneers in the Georgia State League this season.

Ace Adams, rugged firehorse who set a major league record (since broken by Jim Konstanty) on 70 pitching appearances with the New York Giants in 1943, is trying a comeback.

Colorful Adams strayed from the Giants to the outlaw Mexican League in 1945, answering the lure of clinking pesos. He has been out of organized ball since. Now he is 40 years old.

Ace, who purchased the Fitzgerald franchise and will serve as owner-field manager, will have only himself—and the fans—to answer to. He has not set a date for his pitching debut, has been taking it easy in spring training "waiting for the weather to warm up." He will not pitch the opener against Hazlehurst-Baxley here Monday night.

No one envies Ace his position. He takes over a club that finished a whopping 52½ games out of first place in 1951 on 34 victories and 96 losses, firmly embedded in the cellar. Despite this ignominity, Fitzgerald ranked second in attendance. If Ace can provide a contender, the franchise may prove the loop's most valuable.

Unless Adams can offer some of his fabled pitching punch again, he may go hurting on the hill. Number one man right now is Jack Mote, second-year youth from Valdosta who probably will get the opening-day shot. Behind him: Joe Ferri, promising sinker-ball rookie; Rolando Muniz, 130-pound Cuban; John L. Sullivan, like his namesake out of Boston, but a rookie; Tom Jamison, limited-service candidate; Earl Smith, local youth; Dick Drew, Dublin native and a local junior high principal; Wally Cox, an old-hand at semi-pro, from Douglas.

Infield looks fair with veteran Manuel Cordero at first; Charley Ridgway, who stole 81 bases here in 1948 and hit .318 while finishing up the year as manager last year, on second; Fred Weaver returning at shortstop, and Thurman Davis, another local product, patrolling third.

WAR ON SEC DIAMOND FRONT

Vols, Cats Invade Atlanta, Athens; Tigers Defend Plain Against Rebs

Three separate Southeastern Conference baseball wars flare in the area Wednesday and Thursday. Georgia Tech entertains Tennessee, Kentucky comes to Georgia and Auburn plays Ole Miss on The Plain.

Either Buddy Young, Atlanta junion, or Bill Holt, Bainbridge junior, is to chunk against the hard-hitting Vols. Tennessee (5-4 in SEC play), which eked out two victories over Tech last week end at Knoxville, probably will use junior lefty Johnny Huffstetler. Huffstetler, previously listed as a mere .688 hitter, saw his average soar to an astronomical .733 when a mistake was discovered in UT figures.

Tech is 2-5-1 in the conference.

For the 4 p. m. Tech-Tennessee clash at Rose Bowl Field, Vol Coach Cy Anderson will introduce six .300-or-better strokers. Besides Huffstetler, pitchers Billy Joe O'Kain and Billy Joe McClain are hitting .500 and .423. Outfielder Bert Rechichar has a .400 figure, third-sacker B. B. Hopkins .357 and second baseman Herky Payne .333.

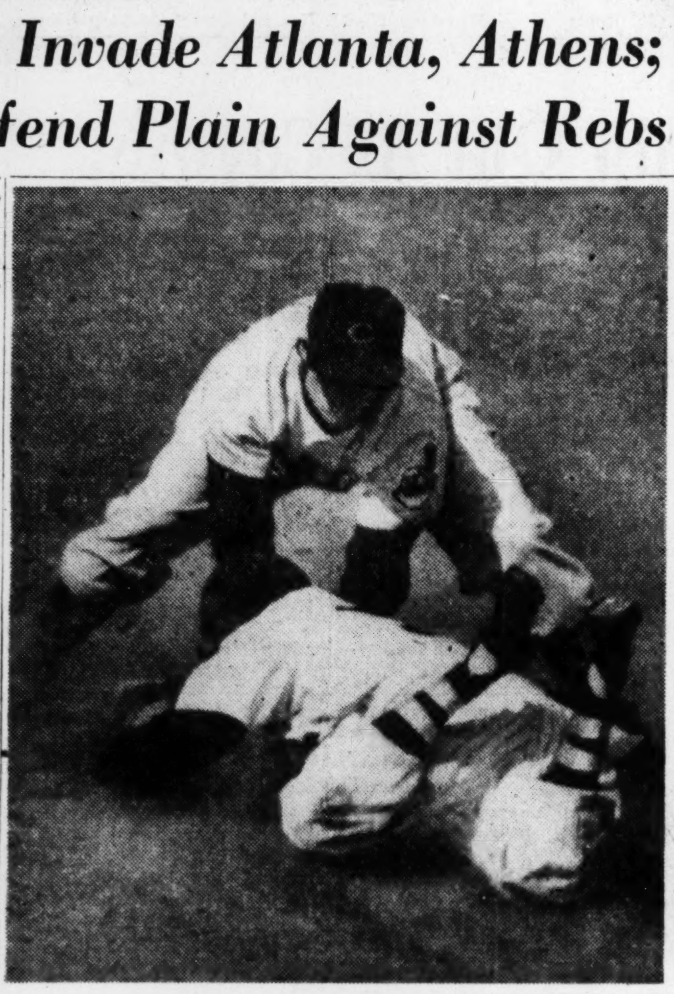

An illustrious Georgian will be in Vol livery in first baseman Sid Hatfield. The Porterdale blond was voted outstanding player in last year's College World Series at Omaha, Nebraska.

Georgia, loop-last at 0-3-1, has a chance to mar Kentucky's perfect card of 2-0. Coach Jim Whatley named Lefty Dick Dozier, who got credit in relief for Georgia's 8-7 triumph, to twirl for the Bulldogs.

An earlier two-game set scheduled between Georgia and Kentucky was rained out at Lexington.

Auburn chief Dick McGowen picked Atlanta sophomore Buck Bradberry to open for the Plainsmen (3-3-1) against Ole Miss. Bradberry, who has struck out 37 in 31 innings, has won two, lost two. Auburn, however, has lost five straight, has not won since defeating Howard two weeks ago.

The Rebels are 2-3 in the conference.

Tech Netters Blank Emory

Ed Van Winkle, Tech, downed Morris Dillard, 6-4, 6-4, in the No. 1 singles match and then teamed with Rod Lee to down Billy Yon and Dave Simmons, 6-3, 6-0.

Singles—Ed Van Winkle (T) defeated Morris Dillard, 6-4, 6-4; Larry Bell (T) defeated Harris Asbury, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4; Mac McCallister (T) defeated Billy Yon, 6-4, 6-4; Rod Lee (T) defeated Wallace Rustin, 6-2, 6-3; Bill Phil Rotholz (T) defeated Erik Thorbecker, 6-2, 6-1; Allen Hardin (T) defeated Dave Simmons, 6-3, 6-1.

Jonesboro Edges N. Clayton, 7-6

JONESBORO, April 15—Jonesboro's baseballers weathered a six-run, fifth-inning storm by North Clayton Tuesday afternoon to edge the visitors, 7-6.

MAJORS

Boston's first run. Sid Gordon drove in the other with a single after Earl Torgeson had doubled.

Jim Hegan was the big gun in the Indians' artillery. The big catcher doubled in Cleveland's first run in the fourth and ignited the winning two-run rally in the seventh with a single. Bobby Avila's squeeze bunt scored one and Larry Doby singled in what proved to be the winning run. Early Wynn yielded six hits to best Billy Pierce who gave up the same number of safeties.

Ned Garver held the Tigers to six singles and clubbed two of the six hits the Browns obtained off Dizzy Trout. Garver's second hit drove in St. Louis' second run in the fifth. Marty Marion scored the first Brownie run when he doubled in the fourth, moved to third on a single by Jim Rivera and crossed the plate when Tom Wright hit into a double play.

Mel Parnell spoiled Washington's inaugural with a neat three-hit performance as the Red Sox made use of the five hits they garnered off Bob Porterfield. Walt Dropo snapped a scoreless duel with a two-run double in the fifth and Ted Williams added an insurance run in the eighth with a booming triple to center field.

It was Parnell's 15th straight victory over the Senators. The Nats have not been able to beat the southpaw since May 29, 1948. Another eminent southpaw, President Truman, started off proceedings by throwing out the first ball left-handed. It was his seventh and probably his last presidential pitch.

The Cubs built up an early tap lead on a second inning homer by Ransom Jackson and a grand-slammer by Hank Sauer off Herm Wehmeier in the third, but the Reds pecked away at Paul Minner and Johnny Klippstein to tie the score 5-5 on Andy Seminick's eighth-inning homer. Hermanski's winning hit came off loser Dutch Hiller who toiled for the Cubs last years. Joe Hatten was the winner.

The St. Louis Cardinals weathered a late Pittsburgh uprising to beat the Pirates, 3-2, before a chilled night crowd of 15,850 at St. Louis. Red Schoendienst, returning to action after a 15-day layoff caused by a broken finger, hit a home run for the Redbirds and Ralph Kiner homered for Pittsburgh.

20,000 TO WATCH

Robinson 3-1 Choice To Defeat Graziano

CHICAGO, April 15—(AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson, one of the greatest fighters of this era, will defend his world's middleweight championship against dangerous Rocky Graziano, former titleholder, Wednesday night before a bulging crowd of 20,000.

No ring battle promoted by the International Boxing Club in Chicago has attracted such tremendous interest.

The gross gate at the Chicago Stadium probably will hit $261,000, surpassing the IBC's top fistic promotion of $246,546 paid by 25,932 to see Ezzard Charles defeat Jersey Joe Walcott for the NBA version of the heavyweight championship in Comiskey Park, June 22, 1949.

The net receipts may reach $200,000 of which Robinson will get 30 per cent and Graziano 25. Both will share in the TV-radio pool of $80,000. Thus Robinson stands to pick up $84,000 and Graziano $70,000.

The battle, scheduled to start at 10 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, will be viewed by millions through television lens, although the telecast has been blacked out for the Chicago area.

Robinson, because of his superior boxing and hard punching, is a 3-1 betting favorite. Even money odds were quoted that Robinson will triumph by a knockout inside eight rounds. Graziano, undoubtedly the most colorful mauler in the ring, will rely on his devastating right hand wallop for victory. He is an extremely dangerous hitter as long as he remains on his feet.

Stratofort Takes Initial Test Flight

LARSON AIR FORCE BASE, Wash., April 15 (AP)—America's newest strategic air weapon, the eight-jet Boeing YB-52 Stratofortress, flew to this Central Washington base from Seattle on its maiden flight today.

Dwarfing two smaller escorting fighter ships, the huge plane with its sharply swept back wing circled over the Larson Base before landing at 2 p.m. (PST). It had taken-off from Boeing Field, Seattle, at 11:09 a.m. (PST) and swept leisurely over the Seattle area before thundering eastward over the Cascades.

"The flight was excellent in every respect," Boeing test pilot A. M. (Tex) Johnston said as he stepped down to the field.

He was accompanied by Lt. Col. Guy M. Townsend of the Air Force Flight Test Center as co-pilot.

The YB-52, which resembles the B-47 Stratojet but is much larger was ordered into production by the Air Force long before plans were even made for its first flight. Details about the ship and its performance, however, have been ordered "classified" information.

The ship is the second of its design. The first one, an experimental model, was returned to the factory at Seattle for installation of additional equipment.

County Board Chief Indicted In Chicago

CHICAGO, April 15 (AP)—The Cook County grand jury today was reported to have voted a true bill charging, William N. Erickson, president of the Cook County Board with omission of duty and malfeasance. The jurors have been investigating reports of payroll irregularities.

The grand jury also was reported to have voted true bills charging Erickson and two associates with conspiracy. The associates are Bernard Anderson, Erickson's chauffeur, and Earl Kistner, county personnel director.

Erickson withdrew as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor after the alleged payroll irregularities were brought to light.

The inquiry grew out of the Feb. 6 shotgun slaying of Charles Gross, Republican committeeman of the 31st Ward.

Gross was opposed for election to the committee post by the West Side bloc, an alliance of politicians who live in that section. Following the slaying a number of payrollers who live in bloc territory were fired.

This led to a general investigation of county payrolls.

It developed that one "James Addison" was on the payroll as a clerk at $200 a month. "Addison" never has materialized but officials said his checks were mailed to the Chicago address of state Rep. James J. Adduci.

Adduci, a Republican, has been indicted on charges of conspiracy, forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses.

Convicts Riot, Seize 4 Officials in Bid To Oust Warden

TRENTON, N. J., April 15 (AP)—Convicts, screaming they were the "scum of society," seized four Trenton State Prison officers as hostages today, grabbed control of the prison print shop and demanded the warden be removed.

Authorities identified kidnaper August Doak—said to be a member of Detroit's notorious Purple Gang—as one of the ringleaders of the 58 convicts. They refused to talk to prison officials until two newspapermen were brought to witness their demands but allowed medicine into the shop for two prison guards suffering from heart disease.

Doak, 36-year-old desperado, was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1946 after kidnaping a state trooper who chased him for speeding. He had escaped from state prison in Jackson, Mich., and was wanted for kidnaping in Tennessee.

"We're not giving up. We're outlaws from the word go—we're the scum of society. We know we're going to get the worst of it," yelled convict William Dickens, spokesman for the embattled prisoners.

Dickens said the disgruntled convicts, some of whom took part in two previous riots within the past month, demanded the removal of Warden William Carty and an investigation of the sprawling, crowded state prison.

Prison officials brought in Associated Press newsman Russell Mullen and Newark Evening News reporter Arnold E. Martin to hear the convicts.

"We're not asking for no hotel. Give us the same thing they have at federal prisons," Dickens demanded.

The convicts complained about the prison food, bedding, sanitation, and the prison rehabilitation program.

Hughes Spalding Named Trustee On AU Board

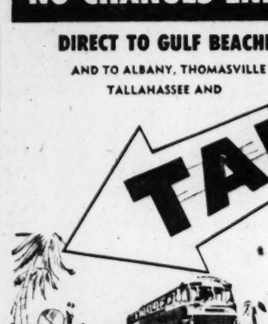

Hughes Spalding, Atlanta attorney, has been elected a member of the board of trustees of Atlanta University.

A member of the firm of Spalding, Sibley, Troutman and Kelley, Spalding is chairman of the board of trustees of the Fulton-DeKalb Hospital Authority. He is on the board of directors of the Coca-Cola Co., the Trust Company of Georgia, the Atlantic Co., the Habersham Mills, Rich's and Hodgson's, Inc.

A graduate of Georgetown University and the University of Georgia, he has been a member of the Georgia bar for the past 41 years.

Dr. Will W. Alexander of Chapel Hill, N. C., who has served as a trustee of Atlanta University since the institution was reorganized as a graduate school, has retired from the board.

The Most Powerful Gasoline Your Car Can Use!

It's Activated

Today's more powerful engines require a highly complex gasoline to deliver their full power. There can be as many as 1500 different chemical compounds in a gallon of gasoline.

To select the best of these chemicals, and to arrange them properly to fulfill the needs of your car calls for the last word in refinery equipment and scientific skill.

It is Shell's manufacturing policy to make "The most powerful gasoline your car can use." Shell activates gasoline by splitting and rearranging petroleum molecules.

The result—Shell Premium—the most powerful gasoline your car can use. See the Shell Dealer in your neighborhood.

Mayor Hits Move To Strip Army of Waterway Duties

Will Urge Georgia's Congressmen To Fight Shift to Interior Department

Calling the proposal to shift river, harbor and flood control work from Army engineers to the Interior department "a tremendous and grievous mistake," Mayor Hartsfield said Tuesday he will appeal to Georgia's congressional delegation to fight the measure.

The report the President is ready to ask Congress to take away the duties which the corps of engineers has handled 128 years also was opposed by James W. Woodruff Jr., Columbus attorney and president of the Southeastern Resources Development Association.

Woodruff, longtime advocate of river and harbor development, termed the proposal "a seriously bad move."

The Atlanta district engineer's office of the corps of engineers declined comment, but a spokesman declared "the commander in chief is making the decisions and there is nothing we can say."

Commenting on the change first advocated three years ago by the Commission on Reorganization of the Government headed by former President Hoover, the mayor said:

"All of us interested in development of waterways of the Southeast see in this move a tremendous and grievous mistake that would do great harm. The Army has done and is doing, a truly magnificent job and should not be disturbed.

"One of the advantages of keeping the Army in the business of developing rivers and harbors is that it provides an organization—experienced, ready and set up—for use in time of war. To strip the Army of this organization would be harmful in the extreme to national defense."

Constitution Safety Drive Lauded by Club

The Atlanta Constitution's highway safety campaign has been endorsed by the Colonial Hills Civic Club.

"They're doing a wonderful job," the club reported in a unanimous resolution praising the newspaper campaign.

ACCIDENTS

4 Injured In Headon Car Crash

Seven persons were injured, one critically, Tuesday, in a series of traffic accidents in the Atlanta area.

A headon smashup on North Side Dr. at the four-lane highway, sent four persons to Grady. Wilile Ed Almond, 38, Negro, of 249 Ellis St., N. E., driver of one of the cars, told police he evidently went to sleep at the wheel. He was admitted to Grady where his condition was described as "critical." Physicians said Almond suffered possible fractures of the skull and both legs.

Edward Jones, 25, of 114 Hilliard St., S. E., occupant of the Almond auto, was treated at Grady for cuts and bruises. C. B. Anderson, 47, and George F. Rich, 42 of 6 Walker Ter., N. E., both employees at the Lockheed Marietta plant, occupants of the other machine, also received cuts and bruises.

Others injured in mishaps were Walter Quillian, 18, Negro, of 275 Hilliard St., N. E.; Mrs. Ida Marie Calmes, 27, of 313 Georgia Ave., S. E., and William Tanner, 21, Roswell sawmill employee.

Egyptian, Indian Hail UN, Point 4 Health Program

Public health programs in Egypt and India are making rapid progress due to the Point Four program and the United Nations' World Health Organization.

This view was expressed here Tuesday by Dr. L. Antonious Boctor, director of the medical section of Egypt's ministry of social affairs, and Dr. L. D. Khatri, deputy inspector general of the medical and health service of the Hyderabad State of India.

The physicians are in Georgia visiting the State Health Department and the communicable disease center of the Public Health Service.

JAYNE'S P-W tablets KILL PIN-WORMS
(You may have them and not know it)

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

CHURCH LEADERS
L. to R., Dr. Huie, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Boykin

600 Churchwomen Elect Staff, Hear Pressley

The importance of trainng youth for Christian leadership was stressed Tuesday by Dr. Willam Pressly, president of Westminster Schools, as he addressed more than 600 women from 76 churches at the 45th annual meeting of the women of the church, Presbytery of Atlanta, at Peachtree Road Presbyterian Church.

"Christian education produces intangibles that make for the kind of men and women we want our boys and girls to grow up to be," said Dr. Pressly.

Other speakers included Dr. Wade P. Huie Jr., pastor of Vineville Presbyterian Church, Macon; Mrs. John C. Holt, who spoke on the work of the business women's group, and Mrs. Ben Knox, Mrs. H. Q. Huie, Miss Kathleen Mackey, Miss Ruth Davis, Mrs. E. F. Cavaleri and Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who discussed the 1952 objective of endowment at Stillman College of a chair of Bible and Sunday School extension through home missions.

Speakers scheduled Wednesday are Dr. Huie; Dr. Samuel B. Hay of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and the Rev. Dennis McCall Brown of Atlanta. Mrs. Shirley C. Boykin of Carrollton, is president of the organization.

The following officers were elected to serve until 1955.

Mrs. Robert H. Perkins, second vice-president; Mrs. James O. Morgan, treasurer; Mrs. Willam T. Asher, historian; Mrs. E. C. Hammond, chairman of education; Mrs. John R. Richardson, chairman of world missons, and Mrs. Charles R. Bradford, chairman of stewardship.

Installation ceremonies will be held Wednesday.

DeKalb Plans No Special Booths

Mrs. Mildred Walker DeKalb County registrar, said Tuesday no special registration booths will be set up prior to the May 14 primary for the DeKalb areas of Atlanta.

She agreed, however, to establish booths after May 14, if there is demand.

Her forces are already overworked, Mrs. Walker said. She blamed apathy of civic organizations for failure to map the program in time for the primary.

Krupa Insures Hands In $100,000 Policy

NEW YORK — (INS) — Gene Krupa, bandleader and drummer, recently took out an insurance policy on his hands for $100,000 with Lloyd's of London, coverage including any inuries or disability which may impair their use for his playing. Krupa's action was prompted by his recent concentrated study of the tympany and his new serious interest in the playing of longhair music.

Foster Race In 9th Based On Contacts

By M. L. ST. JOHN
Constitution Political Editor

ELLIJAY, April 15—The supporters of former State Sen. Orsbon Foster are predicting the 36-year-old bachelor will carry a half-dozen or more counties across the top rim of the Ninth District in the May 14 Democratic primary.

Orsbon Foster

Other candidates in the race—there are six men running for the post being vacated by Rep. John S. Wood of Canton this year—say that Foster won't get more than two or three counties. A half-dozen counties might be enough to win in a badly divided race among six candidates for the 40 unit votes. The post will go to the candidate polling the largest number of units.

Foster has two home counties. He was born and reared in Towns County on the northeastern side of the district, and he still maintains a home there. A few years ago, he came over to Gilmer County in the northwest side of the district to open his law office.

His campaign is being conducted almost exclusively on a personal contact basis, as he goes from courthouse to courthouse and out into the rural areas chatting with individual voters and political leaders.

PERSONAL APPEAL

Foster believes the next congressman will be elected on a basis of personal appeal rather than issues, because all candidates seem to be in general agreement on the issues.

Not much of a public speaker, the soft-spoken, plodding candidate doesn't plan stump speeches. He punctuates his private conversations with frequent repetitions of: "Yeah, that's right . . . yeah, that's certainly right," as an amen either to something the voter has said or something the candidate is emphasizing.

CARDS GIVE STAND

As for platform promises, Foster is handing out cards giving his stand. He is for federal aid to education, against higher taxes, for lower taxes, and for any legislation which will help the farmers, the poultry industry, the REA, and the veterans. He will fight subversive influences and oppose any violation of state and individual rights. He also says he will work to bring industry into the Ninth District.

Foster started in politics young. He was only 21 when he was first chosen to represent Towns County in the House. He served two terms in the House and one in the Senate. He was the first senator to resign from the Georgia Legislature to enter the Army during World War II. Since the war he has served a second term as senator. He attended Young Harris, Emory, and Woodrow Wilson Law School.

PEOPLE AND PETS—Scenes of happiness and sorrow are enacted almost daily in Atlanta's many veterinary hospitals, where all kinds of pets from dogs and cats to "deodorized" skunks are treated and operated upon. Services such as blood transfusions and shots of penicillin are common. Mrs. J. H. Blaylock, upper left, sobs visibly as she and her pet, Nippie, await Nippie's turn in the operating room. "Old Nellie," the aged greyhound, upper right, has given almost one blood transfusion a day for three weeks to dogs which had undergone surgery or were injured in accidents. The pet skunk, Pee Wee, lower left, was "deodorized" as another special service of these pet hospitals. T. H. Abbey, lower right, and his pet, Mike, are reunited after Mike had been hospitalized for more than a week.

'HMS Pinafore' Billed By Marist Glee Club

The Marist Glee Club will present its fourth Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "HMS Pinafore," Thursday and Friday in the Sacred Heart Auditorium.

Miss Barbara Morris of the Sacred Heart School plays the leading feminine role; Rodney Perry is cast as the young sailor, and Lawrence White is in the role of Pinafore captain. The operetta is under the direction of Father J. J. McManus.

Greyhound Has Given Blood for 1,000 Dogs

By PAUL JONES

The doctor in the white coat hurriedly replaced the telephone on the "hook." He turned to his assistant.

"Ready the operating room for an emergency. Patient is on the way now. We may need a transfusion so you may get Old Nellie prepared."

Within a matter of minutes the patient pattered through the door of the Marietta St. operating room. She had a bone lodged in her throat and emergency surgery was indicated.

The operating room was abuzz for at least 15 minutes before the doctor had extracted the bone and had called for "Old Nellie" to enter for the transfusion.

"Old Nellie" responded to a rush call and bounded into the operating room, leaped upon the operating table and raised her head high so the doctors could perform the transfusion operation.

BLOODED GREYHOUND

Scenes similar to this are old to "Old Nellie," for she's an aged greyhound who has provided blood for more than 1,000 dogs injured in accidents or suffering from loss of blood in surgical operations.

"Nellie" has been a "fixture" in a Marietta Street veterinary hospital for almost eight years. She has devoted her life to saving other dogs. After each transfusion she is given a double helping of raw meat. She then obediently returns to her "room" at the hospital.

Scores of pet lovers come to the veterinary hospitals almost daily and the scenes enacted there are similar to those enacted in a hospital for human beings.

HELPFUL SERVICES

The veterinarians also deliver babies (pups, that is), administer drugs, medicines and care for an assortment of pets, ranging from bobcats to demoralized skunks.

In the words of one of the doctors, "a veterinarian must become something more than just an animal doctor. He must call upon his knowledge of human psychology to cope with distraught pet lovers, for," he said, "the ties between pets and people are often deeper than those between members of a human family."

Typical of those who come daily to the veterinary hospitals are Mrs. J. H. Blaylock, who burst into tears when she was told that her cocker spaniel puppy, Nippie, would have to undergo an operation. Another visitor, T. H. Abbey, was reunited with his pet, Mike. The pet had been under treatment at the hospital for a week.

WINDOW NEST—Mrs. Robert M. Gibson Sr., of 1230 Woodland Ave., S. E., examines the sparrow nest in a window box beside her kitchen sink. Mrs. Gibson says she gets a birdseye view of the mother sparrow while she does her dish washing. There are five week-old eggs in the nest.

Medical Postgrad Courses Added

Two postgraduate courses will be offered next fall by the Emory University School of Medicine, Dr. Russell H. Oppenheimer, director of medical postgraduate education at Emory, announced.

A course on general medicine and surgery is scheduled for the week beginning Oct. 6, and a course on cardiology is scheduled for the week of Oct. 20. About 100 physicians are expected to enroll in each.

The medicine and surgery course is open to general practitioners and will be given by Emory in co-operation with the Medical Association of Georgia and the Georgia chapter of the American Academy of General Practice.

The cardiology course is expected to attract heart specialists from over the country. Guest speakers scheduled include Dr. George E. Burch, Tulane University Medical School; Dr. Richard Bing, Medical College of Alabama, and Dr. Eugene Stead, Duke University Medical School.

3 Reserve Squads Win Citations

Three reserve squadrons — two Marine and one Navy—called to duty from the Atlanta Naval Air Station since the outbreak of the Korean war were among units cited as "an inspiration and source of pride" by the retiring commander of the Pacific Air Fleet.

Vice-Adm. Thomas L. Sprague, who recently relinquished command of the fleet, called members of the Air Reserve the "Minute Men" of today.

Noting this country already has expended in Korea "as much aviation ammunition as was expended during the whole of World War II," Admiral Sprague went on to say:

"This spectacular dividend on the relatively small investment of funds appropriated for the maintenance of the Naval Air Reserve has clearly demonstrated that the Naval Reserve program is the only effective and economical way to maintain a high standard of preparedness."

NAVY UNIT FIRST

The first squadron to go from Atlanta was the Navy's VF-671 under command of Lt. Comdr. H. K. Price, 844 Wellesley Dr., N. W., in February, 1951. It soon was joined by two Marine outfits, MGCIS-15, commanded by Lt. Col. Leland Smith, Montgomery, Ala., and VMF-351, commanded by Maj. R. J. Webster, 821 Frederica St., Northeast.

A pilot refresher course has been set up at the Naval Air Station here in addition to the reserve program. The course is for aviators who served in World War II and have been called back to active duty. Expert Navy pilots, including several veterans of Korea, are among instructors.

Meanwhile Capt. S. M. Pickering, commanding officer at the Naval Air Station, announced a summer training program for about 136 Georgia boys of predraft age will be conducted by the station.

TWO SUMMER PROGRAMS

Georgia youngsters between the ages of 17 and 18½ will be selected between now and June 10 to participate in one of two programs, he said. One is a 90-day training program, and the other is a 56-day program.

The summer course is designed to teach the young men leadership, operation of the Navy as an industry and an aviation skilled trade. Instructors will be Naval Reserve personnel.

Each man will be furnished uniforms, lodging, meals, medical care and pay of $75 a month during the summer program.

Methodists Delegated to Conference

When the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church gets under way in San Francisco on April 23, the only feminine delegate from Georgia will be Mrs. Stewart Colley of Grantville, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Georgia Conference. Mr. and Mrs. Colley will leave next week end for California.

Other delegates from Georgia will include Dr. Pierce Harris, Dr. William Cannon and the Rev. Nat Long of Atlanta, Dr. E. G. Mackay of Oxford and Dr. Lester Rumble of Augusta.

Dr. W. A. Smart is a delegate-at-large to the Conference. He and Mrs. Smart left Sunday for San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Armstrong will motor to the West Coast. Going with them is Mrs. Pierce Harris, who will join Dr. Harris there. The latter will leave by plane April 22. Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Trimble left the first of the week to attend the conference.

Others motoring to California are those former Atlantans, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Few of Greensboro, N. C., who reached Atlanta Monday and were guests overnight of their former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Taylor Jr., at the Pershing Hotel.

Movie Stars Wage War

William Bendix, the movie star, undertook to discuss the War Between the States at a meeting of the Motion Picture Theater Owners and Operators of Georgia the other day, and for a Yankee addressing a Southern audience, he probably rang up some sort of record.

"I tell you about this War Between the States," said Bendix, leveling at his audience one of those ingratiatingly unintelligent looks that have endeared him to millions of movie-goers.

"I grew up in Brooklyn . . . and I t'ought de Dodgers won!"

Bendix's flyer into history was made shortly before he and a group of other movie stars took off into the heart of Georgia to win audiences under the auspices of "Movie Time, U. S. A."

And if his success with the rest of Georgia is anything like his success with the Atlantans who heard him, the Motion Picture Theater Owners and Operators have, as the saying goes, got it made.

Bendix and other members of the company were funny and charming. They kidded and complimented Georgia and its citizens. They admired our public officials—specifically Gov. Talmadge and Mayor Hartsfield—and they did the very thing that always makes a host anywhere happy:

They SEEMED to be having such a good time.

The group, including screen writer Robert Hardy Andrews, Rory Calhoun, Lizabeth Scott and Broderick Crawford, will spend this week visiting Georgia towns and crossroads communities and wherever they stop they're bound to pick up new friends for the movie industry.

Of course, the burden of their song is that movies are better than ever. ("I know they are," proclaimed Bendix, "I haven't been in any lately!")

But they are doing a bigger selling job than that. They are bucking propaganda about Communists in Hollywood. ("There are 2,000 members of the Screen Writers Guild," said Andrews.

"Thirty-eight had their loyalty questioned. The others, I believe, are entitled to your respect as they give you their respect.")

They are selling the idea that movie stars are glamorous. (One look at Lizabeth Scott was enough for most Doubting Thomases.)

And they are selling the principle that the 19 behind-the-scenes people back of every movie star are hard-working, earnest Americans who are good neighbors and good citizens.

But the theater owners still retain some of the burdens which they can't hope to shift to the lighthearted Bendix & Company.

"Bill Hartsfield is in the amusement business, too," said Williams. "Only they call it recreation—and it's not subject to a federal excise tax.

"That's true," observed the mayor. "And we grossed $60,000 on it . . . without selling a single bag of popcorn!"

Tech Frats Ready for Gala Revue

The Interfraternity Council at Georgia Tech is making great plans for a gala week end, with a number of out-of-town belles gathering for the Friday and Saturday events.

The program begins with a "Ramblin' Revue" which will be held Friday evening, weather permitting, on the Tech tennis courts. In case of rain, the revue will be held in the gymnasium and during the dance Anak, Tech honor society, will tap its new members.

IFC LEADOUT SET

A concert will be held in the gymnasium Saturday afternoon and that evening the IFC formal will be held at the City Auditorium. The highlight of the formal will be the IFC leadout.

The IFC officers are Phil Rotholz, president; Mace Phillips, vice-president; Jack Lawler, secretary, and Harold McKenzie Jr., treasurer.

Guests from a distance will include Miss Frances Clark, of Vicksburg, Miss.; Miss Joellen Jones of Meridian, Miss., Miss Beverly Billups of Jackson, Miss.; Misses Martha Brumback and Peggy Woodall of Macon.

Senoritas Visit, Like Our Ways

By YOLANDE GWIN

A trio of college belles from the gay tropics held a reunion in Atlanta Tuesday and went shopping for "romantic type" records.

The girls, all students at American schools, were Senoritas Irmina Michelena and Luisa Moure from Havana, who are at Brenau, and Annie Frouin of the Dominican Republic, who attends Stetson University in DeLand, Fla.

Spring holidays at both schools coincided so the three girls, all friends since girlhood, met in Atlanta for a swing at sightseeing, shopping and a gab fest.

PERFECTING THEIR ENGLISH

"We want to be private secretaries," they chorused, "and whether we live in the states or go back home, we will have to know English."

"We have enjoyed our trip to Atlanta and have done a lot of shopping for shoes and dresses, but our hobby is collecting records. We have record players in our rooms at school."

The girls said that the things they have mostly missed are their native dishes such as black beans, chicken and rice, steaks and seafood with rice.

WATCH THEIR DIET

Senorita Frouin, who wants to work for an airline, said she keeps trim because, "as a secretary I might have to fly for the company too, and then, too, I might be assigned to a hostess or a stewardess job."

As a general custom, parents accompany their daughters to dances as chaperons in their countries and the three girls said they were "in much favor" of the American custom of dating, going to drive-in movies, dances and picnics without chaperons.

"Naturally," they said, "when we are in America we will do as the Americans do, but we hope to be able to follow the custom when we get home. Traveling here by bus was fun and a little different from home."

Meet Madame President

It's a Sunday Dress Every Day

By JEAN ROONEY

One attractive Atlanta matron does. She is Mrs. Spann Milner, president of the Atlanta Council of Churchwomen.

A wardrobe of several feminine suits and a half-dozen tailored and flossy bonnets see Mrs. Milner to church meetings, day and night.

"Churchwomen think about fashions and dress as stylishly as other club women," the daughter of Georgia Tech's President Emeritus, Dr. M. L. Brittain, declares.

This diplomatic "Madame President" keeps more than 12,000 women of 12 Protestant denominations working harmoniously on city-wide service projects. She steers the 70 churchwomen's groups that belong to the Council.

Entertaining church groups frequently in her West Peachtree Rd. apartment, Mrs. Milner serves buffets and party foods. The standbys for church socials, punch and cookies, are "old hat."

Know-how of politics and current events are musts for the modern churchwoman, according to Mrs. Milner. The Council recently took the lead in starting a woman's organization to promote the United Nations in Atlanta.

"We also take stands on legislation that affects Christian principles," she explains.

But work with women prisoners at the city stockade and with families at the Savannah Street and Felton Williams Missions are the council's biggest tasks, she believes.

Opera Summons Many Visitors

Every day brings word of more visitors coming to add glamour and interest to opera and its attendant festivities.

Former Atlantans who are enthusiastic opera-goers and always receive a cordial welcome on their return here are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Moore of Houston, Texas. The Moores arrive April 26 to spend several weeks at the Georgian Terrace.

Also at the Terrace is Mrs. Mary Gatins Jackson, who has already arrived from New York and will remain through opera season. She will attend the presentation of "Carmen" on May 2 as the guest of Mrs. James E. Hickey. Mrs. Jackson expects to return to New York May 6.

Mrs. William S. Walker of Clearfield, Pa., arrives Thursday to visit her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rossiter, on 26th St. for opera.

Mrs. Ed Leigh Wight will entertain informally for her niece, Mrs. Walker, and Mrs. Fuzzy Woodruff will entertain at dinner preceding "La Traviata" on May 1. Covers will be placed for the honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. Rossiter, Mr. and Mrs. Wight and Miss Thena Hathorne.

MRS. A. J. ORME JR., her daughters, Misses Nellie and Dorothy Orme, Miss Linda Lay and Miss Marion West return Wednesday from St. Simons Island, where they spent the Easter holidays at the King and Prince.

AN ATTRACTIVE VISITOR arriving Tuesday was Mrs. Emory Bryan of Locust Valley, Long Island, who is the guest for a week of her brother, Harry Sommers, on Brookhaven Dr.

OTHER VISITORS arriving Tuesday were Mrs. Eugene McNeel and her daughter, Miss Louise McNeel, of Sea Island. Mrs. McNeel is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Frank Inman, at the Ponce de Leon Apartments.

Miss McNeel is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McNeel Jr., in Marietta, and will be maid of honor for Miss Jeanne Brown at the latter's marriage to William Gardner Wright Jr. of Rome on Saturday.

5th District Officers Are Selected

Mrs. R. A. Manning of Decatur will head the Fifth District Federation of Women's Clubs for the next two years. Elections were held at the Atlanta Woman's Club Tuesday.

Mrs. W. Beverly Johnson, first vice-president; Mrs. R. C. Melton, second vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Alday, third vice-president; Mrs. T. R. Wofford, recording secretary; Mrs. J. G. Carroll, treasurer, and Mrs. T. Early Duncan, auditor.

Twelve new women's clubs came into the Fifth District Federation during the past two years and overall membership jumped 10 per cent.

Also during recent months, a Fifth District Chorale Group was originated.

An award to the club president with the best service record went to Mrs. Horace Clark of East Point Woman's Club. Sandy Springs Woman's Club gave the largest contributions to the district's "Penny Art Fund."

An "Outstanding Work for War Veterans" award went to Garden Hills Woman's Club.

Miss Higgins Is Engaged

ROME, April 15—Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Higgins Sr. announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie Louise Higgins, to Lt. Ernest H. Graham, USMC.

Miss Higgins attended Duke University, later transferring to Shorter College, from which she was graduated with an A. B. degree. She is a member of the Rome Girls' Cotillion Club.

Lieutenant Graham is the son of Mrs. Ernest H. Graham and the late Mr. Graham. He attended the Citadel and was graduated from the University of North Carolina with an A. B. degree. He belongs to the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

Belsinger Garden

Mrs. Sam P. Belsinger of 3814 Vermont Rd., N. E., will again open her gardens, Singing Waters, to the public on Sunday, April 20, from 2 to 7 p. m., for the benefit of Appleton Churches Home for Girls.

The tour is sponsored by St. Hilda's Chapter of All Saints Church. A free will offering will be accepted.

Comprising the tour is a visit to formal and informal gardens on several levels, and a walk through flowering woods.

Your Stars Today

Daily Guide—The influences for the next few days are rather contradictory, so that one will have to step gingerly to avoid the rough spots while enjoying a bit of luck. The afternoon is not conducive to accuracy, so check all paper work and oral messages. Later in the evening some culmination of events which have been hanging fire for some time can be expected. There is bound to be an exchange of ideas, compliments, even gifts, with the emphasis on good will.

Happy Birthday, Aries!—If I could see you personally, I'd be willing to bet that you would tell me you received more presents this year, or had more fun and were invited out by more people than usual. Have a good time and push your luck right now while you have it.

Practice Plus Plans Equal Party Success

By AGNES REASOR OLMSTEAD

Common sense and organization are the secrets for enjoying your own parties and for running your home, according to Carolyn Coggins, author of a new handbook for hostesses, "Successful Entertaining at Home" (Prentice-Hall, $4.95).

Mrs. Coggins is visiting this week in Atlanta where she is presenting a homemakers' fashion show Friday afternoon at a local department store.

FUN WITH FOODS

This book is based on her experiences in her own home while she doubled as a successful New York career woman. Traveling in her job meant she was entertained a great deal.

She had a chance to observe what other hostesses did also. Whether you call a hotel room home or a 20-room house yours, the same rules should be mastered if you ever achieve success in hostessing.

"These are 12 tricks any woman can use to make her a famous hostess," says Mrs. Coggins.

1. Discover the art of mixing green salads and the dressings for them.
2. Be a glamour-chef with a chafing dish.
3. Be on intimate terms with pot dinners and stews which can be prepared in advance.
4. Use herbs and spices.
6. Learn how to make soups and stocks.
7. Cook vegetables properly.
8. Be clever about serving molded foods.
9. Dramatize desserts.
10. Become an expert at making good beverages.
11. Make a meal a production. Remember your whole house is a setting for a party.
12. Serve it buffet.

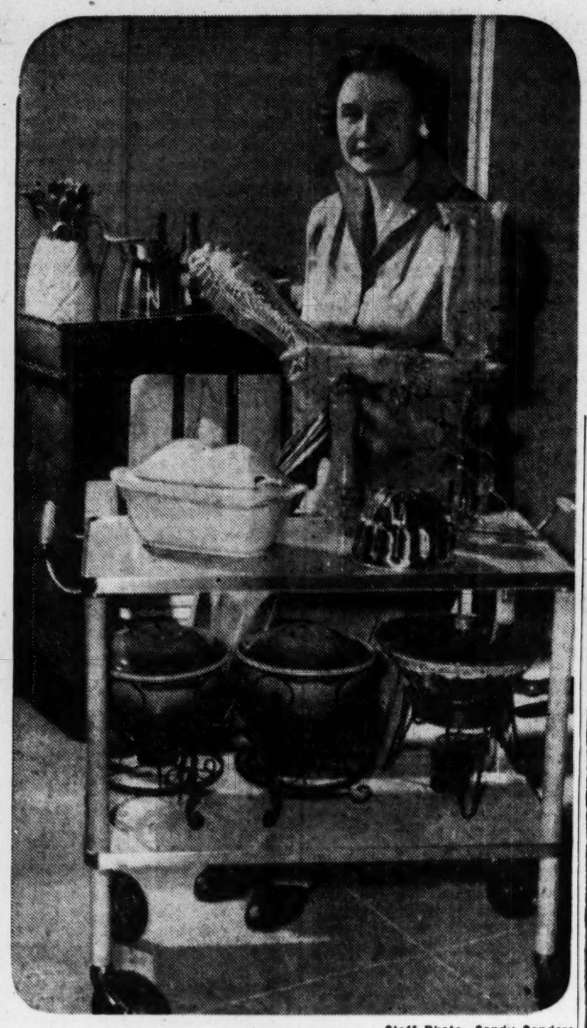

Mrs. Coggins is pictured here with some of the things she believes most women have in their homes or can add without great expense that make entertaining easier.

Serving carts on wheels, twin warmers, chafing dishes, casseroles and tureens, fancy copper or aluminum molds, interesting beverage servers and herbs are the familiar objects that make daily homemaking fun and interesting.

"The domestic hearth: there only is real happiness" says Anatole France for Mrs. Coggins. On this thought is developed the second part of the book which covers house guests, guest rooms, the servant problem, organization, equipment for the home, plus everything you should know about silver, china, glass, pewter

Homemakers may be intrigued with all the menus and recipes scattered through the book. Many are Mrs. Coggin's own, others have come from fine restaurants and test kitchens.

May Georgians will remember Mrs. Coggins' Constitution column "Behind The Lines" which appeared for several years. On May 6, she leaves for a tour of the cheese and wine countries of Europe and the famous restaurants to gather material for her next book on food.

HELPFUL "TOOLS" FOR SUCCESSFUL PARTIES

Diet Okay But Never Talk of It

By IDA JEAN KAIN

While dieting is always popular with women, and a favorite topic of conversation, the subject should never be mentioned when you are dining a beau.

If he has an eye for figures he appreciates the fact that his lady of the evening has curbed her calories, but he doesn't care to hear the hungry details. Besides, why not let him think that form divine is simply a gift from heaven?

BORING TALK

Diet is boring to a man, no matter what his weight may be. If he's as lean as Tarzan, he doesn't want his meal spoiled by talk of calorie curbing. And if, alas, your escort has lost his waistline he wants even less to hear about dieting!

What should a girl do who dines out frequently and hopes to keep svelte enough to continue to receive invitations? It's fairly easy to diet without calling attention to the facts. You can go through the bill of fare and order every course and still stay within reasonable limits.

"What will you have?" says your escort. Any coy remark on your part—however light—that you are on a diet would take half the pleasure out of the meal for both of you. Look the menu over . . . and suggest that oysters or the shrimp would just hit the spot . . . they are made to order for slimming. Or choose hot bouillon.

EXPENSE ACCOUNT

Unless you know that your date has a rich uncle or an unlimited expense account, better stick to the chops or liver and bacon or the fish. These are low in calories and not the highest price. From the vegetables choose two, without sauce. And the salad, "with dressing on the side," you might add.

It will not be noticed that you skip the rolls with butter, the potatoes, gravy, and other trimhings.

For dessert, it is quite in the best gourmet tradition to order just coffee. Or cheese and crackers or a fruit ice. Do not order a rich dessert, for that contributes more calories than all the rest of the meal put together.

Bringing Up Baby

Hints Collected by Mrs. Dan Gerber (Mother of 5)

Even the very tiniest babies are sensitive to changes in your disposition. When you are cross and fussy with your child, this feeling is easily transmitted. Naturally we're all out of sorts from time to time, but with a little patience we can control irritability. Acid test: Getting up for a 2 A.M. feeding or if baby needs some special comfort during the night. If you can curb your feelings then, you can probably meet almost any daily crisis without too much effort.

Mealtime success story in 3 easy lessons:

1. Schedule slave? Don't be. If baby's hungry a bit before time, serve him then. If he rejects food at the regular time—save it for later.
2. "Pint-size" portions really encourage tots to clean their plates and call for seconds.
3. Variety is "spice"-of-life" for little folks, too, so offer baby a well-rounded choice of foods.

To women who are watching helplessly as their skins dry up and grow old

A new greaseless flowing beauty formula that literally brings dewy moisture to aging or drying-up skin

How often have you hopefully applied night cream only to have your dreams of a dewy, youthful skin shattered by a rude awakening, your face still covered with grease. Now you can stop "buttering" your face. For here is an entirely new concept in beauty—unlike anything you have ever known—anything you have ever used.

What Makes Skin Grow Old?

You have seen fruit grow old in a bin. You have seen your corsage dry up while you wore it. And you know what causes this—DEHYDRATION. That's what so often happens to your skin too — DEHYDRATION — and sensitive skin dehydrates sooner.

Jacqueline Cochran Was Determined to Find a Flowing Formula

Impatient with all greasy creams, Jacqueline Cochran, top-flight beauty authority, was determined to find a formula that would give the skin the balanced moisture that it requires. She and her chemists worked indefatigably and through a stroke of genius FLOWING VELVET was created.

For FLOWING VELVET is a three-way flowing formula with three-way action. This unique combination of rich cream, lotion and facial oil, containing a new moisture-giving ingredient, hydrolin, acts on your skin in these three ways:

- It furnishes moisture that actually sinks into your skin.
- It supplies necessary oils for essential lubrication.
- It maintains the normal balance of oils and moisture.

Beauty Overnight...Beauty All the Day

FLOWING VELVET knows no time limits. Use this flowing fluid cream at night. It disappears instantly into the skin, leaving not a trace of grease on your face, on your pillow, on your husband. Use FLOWING VELVET by day. It sinks at once below the surface—with only a cool, moist look to show it was ever there—but oh, the beauty of that dewy, cared-for look! And over it goes your foundation and make-up, while FLOWING VELVET works its magic all the day!

Contains No Hormones!

A little FLOWING VELVET...just a few drops...is all that is required because its ingredients are so rich, so concentrated. But you can use all you want, with complete confidence in its safety. You can wear it all day, every day...all night, every night. For FLOWING VELVET supplies the special moisture and oils your skin needs...safely and naturally. And it contains no hormones.

"If I could afford just one..."

So many women say, "If I could afford just one beauty preparation ...it would be FLOWING VELVET. For what else could possibly take its place?"

MAKE THIS TEST!

Come in and see our Jacqueline Cochran representative. She will pour a few drops of FLOWING VELVET on your hand, and you will see yourself how quickly it sinks into your skin, leaving not a single trace of grease.

WHY IS WANDA WITHERING ON THE VINE?

Wanda used to be so full of "bounce"... always the life of the party. Now her healthy color has been drained away... she's lost her pep and enthusiasm. She seems old before her time.

Doctors tell us that many such tragedies can be avoided. Many, many men and up to 2 out of 3 women, particularly those from 15 to 50, suffer needlessly from a simple iron deficiency. And it's these women who sorely need an abundance of iron to rebuild rich, red blood that renews strength and energy...puts the roses back in your cheeks.

Thousands who once were pale and pallid, tired and run-down, have restored health and vigor with IRONIZED YEAST tablets—a concentrated iron tonic formulated specifically to help you revive weakened, washed-out blood cells.

Weakness and pallor can have other causes, so see your doctor regularly. But if iron deficiency has you feeling worn and wasted...drains color from your cheeks...start taking IRONIZED YEAST right away. For IRONIZED YEAST has the vital iron you may need to regain your youthful sparkle, vitality and enthusiasm.

Get IRONIZED YEAST at your drug counter today. See how its daily use can help you be your old time self again ... for just a few pennies a day.

FACTS ABOUT BULBS

Are You Getting a 'Bargain' in GLADIOLUS?

Commercial growers of bulbs everywhere grade their bulbs into size groups. Naturally, the smaller the bulb the cheaper is the price—also in like proportion, the smaller the bulb the poorer is the quality of bloom. In gladiolus, it is even possible to have too large a bulb, one that is termed as a "spent bulb or corm" that is unusually large in diameter, but is also very flat.

The No. 1 and No. 2 gladiolus grades will produce the finest quality blooms, with strong stems. Smaller sizes produce progressively poorer quality flowers, even though sizes as small as No. 4 are capable of producing blooms.

Our gladiolus bulbs are all No. 1 grade, high crowned quality. Whatever the price—the best bulbs are the cheapest.

Movie Stars Take Rap, Barry Says

By PAUL JONES

Don (Red) Barry, top money-making Western star for many years, Tuesday told a group of 500 Georgia showmen that producers, directors and writers—not the screen stars—are responsible for the pictures which do not click at the box office.

In an address before the fifth annual convention of the Motion Picture Theater Owners and Operators of Georgia, Barry said the actors have "taken the rap" for bad showings at the box office. But he said the blame lies with the production staff which, he said, forces the actors to appear in movies which are not altogether favorable to that actor's talents.

INCIDENTS CITED

The veteran cowboy star pointed out incidents in which Clark Gable, Tyrone Power and others had been forced to appear in what he called "bad movies" and, he said, these appearances had injured their drawing power. He urged the showmen to come to the aid of the stars in demanding better stories, direction and production when box office receipts waned.

Barry was one of a group of Hollywood celebrities who attended the convention here. Others, Lizabeth Scott, Broderick Crawford, Rory Calhoun, William Bendix and Lida Baron left Tuesday for a tour of a score of Georgia and Alabama cities as part of the second annual "Movietime Down South" drive to establish a relation between stars and their fans.

The meeting closed with the election of J. H. Thompson of Hawkinsville to his sixth term as president of the organization.

OTHER OFFICERS

Other officers are: E. D. Martin, Columbus, treasurer; John Thompson, Gainesville, secretary, and O. C. Lam of Rome; Nat Williams of Thomasville, and Ray Edmondson of Atlanta, vice-presidents.

W. M. Snelson, of Toccoa, was named chairman of the directors from the state at large. R. B. Wilby, Atlanta; A. L. Sheppard, Waynesboro, and Roy E. Martin Jr., Columbus, are other directors.

Regional officers of the convention are W. P. Riggins, Jesup; Furber Mincey, Claxton; L. A. Stein, Hazlehurst; W. H. Karrh, Swainsboro; Cecil Crummey, Rochelle; Adolph Gortatowski, Albany; Nat Williams, Thomasville; J. S. Tankersley, Ellijay; R. H. Brannon, Roswell; J. E. Jarrell, Commerce; W. R. Boswell, Greensboro; Fred Weis, Savannah; Nat Hancock, Jefferson; C. K. Cargill, Macon; W. E. Griffin, Vienna; John Hackney, Covington; John Carter, Atlanta; Thomas R. Orr, Albertsville, Ala.; Mrs. M. M. Osman, Covington; Warren Newman, Sandersville; Bransome James, Royston, and W. T. Yarbrough, Hartwell.

HEADS SHOWMEN—J. H. Thompson, Hawkinsville theater owner, was named president of the Theater Owners and Operators of Georgia for the sixth consecutive term as the convention closed here Tuesday. William Bendix congratulates the showman on his re-election. John Thompson, of Gainesville, was named secretary, while E. D. Martin, of Columbus, was elected treasurer.

Pickled Pigs' Feet On Theater Menu

On a trip to a South Georgia town, H. T. Spears, president of the chain, noticed pig feet were going over big in a theater there.

He added them to the food, including hot dogs and hamburgers, on sale in lobbies of his theaters.

Spears said Tuesday his patrons now buy 4,000 pigs feet weekly.

Drag Allatoona In Craft Blast

Divers Wednesday will drag the bottom of Allatoona Lake near Cartersville in an effort to determine the cause of an explosion that wrecked a 16-foot racing craft in the middle of the lake Sunday, threatening the lives of at least two passengers.

Buddy O'Mara, Atlanta dance instructor and Charles Morris, automobile official, who were passengers, said the boat's motor exploded as they attempted to cross the lake. The explosion threw both men into the water. O'Mara was pinned under the craft and was treated at Crawford Long Hospital for lacerations and bruises. Only signs of the boat left on the water were two cushions and pieces of the "hatch" that covered the motor, the Atlantans said. They were unable to give any explanation of the explosion.

UNDER THE DOME

Year's State Services To Cost $216 Million

Georgia taxpayers will foot the bill for $216,668,127 worth of state services in the current fiscal year ending June 30.

This will shove state expenditures approximately $9,000,000 above the record $207,500,000 appropriation bill adopted by the Legislature for the year's operations.

It will mean a $77,488,418 increase in state spending over the previous fiscal year.

The increase in expenditures over appropriations includes $9,000,000 Governor Talmadge has given the highway department from surplus funds, and $5,000,000 he has allocated to the education department to finance school buildings.

$57 MILLION BUDGET

The state budget for the fiscal quarter of April, May and June has been set at $57,219,054, State Auditor B. E. Thrasher Jr. disclosed Tuesday.

With the state having already spent $159,465,066 for the first three quarters of the current fiscal year, the $57,219,054 approved for the fourth quarter will bring state governmental expenditures to $216,684,127 for the year ending June 30.

Most of the increase, over 1950-51, made possible to a large extent by the revenue gains from the three per cent sales tax, is going to pay for better schools, highways, public health and welfare services.

ADDED COSTS

The added expenditures this year for those four phases of governmental service accounts for $71,826,833.

Education is getting by far the largest share of increased funds—$43,479,380 worth. By June 30 the state will have spent $103,649,380 in the fiscal year on common schools and higher education. This compares with $60,170,000 for the previous fiscal year.

State funds for highways, including money distributed to the counties, will total $56,486,923 for the year as compared to $37,775,557 for the previous year—a gain of $18,711,365.

WELFARE SPENDING

Welfare, including institutions such as Milledgeville State Hospital, will have received $25,166,913—an increase of $6,449,088 over the previous year's total of $18,717,825.

Expenditures for public health, including Battey State Hospital and state participation in Hill-Burton hospital construction, will total $11,339,500, an increase of $3,187,000 over the 1950-51 total of $8,152,500.

Although the Legislature adopts an annual budget for the state in its appropriations bill, the expenditures are controlled by quarterly budgets which must have the approval of the governor and the Budget Commission, composed of the governor and state auditor.

Sales Tax Rule

The State of Georgia is planning to tighten up its enforcement of regulations governing the filing of state sales tax collections.

A recently adopted regulation requires that sales tax returns be filed with the revenue department on the 20th of the month following the month in which the tax was collected. Revenue officials said the regulation has not been rigidly enforced until now because of a desire to give the public a chance to become familiar with the rule.

Lester To Preside

State Deputy Revenue Commissioner William Lester will preside this week over a two-day meeting of the Southeastern State Tax Officials' Association at Charleston, South Carolina.

Arthritis Pain Victim Throws Away Crutches
A recent report from Canada tells of a man crippled by arthritis torture, who suddenly surprised his friends by throwing away his crutches and walking freely as though never handicapped by pain of any kind.
The medicine credited with this remarkable result was perfected by an American man who has spent over $1,000,000 in the commercial development and advancement of scientific pain relief. Called NORITO, it gives top-speed, long-lasting relief from the agony of swollen joints—from stabbing nerve and muscle pains.
NORITO is today restoring thousands to pain-free living. Easy on stomach, safe, non-habit forming. Backed by an ironclad guarantee that it must relieve your pain the very first day or your money back. Ask druggist for NORITO today.

Dry Goods

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—The cotton textile market was quiet Tuesday. Declines in the cotton futures market created added restraint among buyers. At the same time a few mills appeared to be more anxious to sell some of the print cloth numbers, with prices 19½ and 19⅝ cents a yard believed to have been accepted on the popular 80 square print cloth. Most mills, however, still quoted 19¾ cents on that number.

The wool goods market was dull. Manufacturers of men's clothing began their showings of fall lines, with the trend towards lower prices on suits. There was a good deal of interest in the latest government order for wool goods, involving 3,900,000 yards of wool or wool-nylon serge cloth. Bidders may submit quotations either on the basis of all wool for the cloth or a blend of 85 per cent wool and 15 per cent nylon.

Rayon goods were slow.

A Sure Indication of Good Brokerage Service

Those who manage their own affairs capably value similar qualities in others. And the careful investor is quick to appreciate the ability and prudence evidenced by those on whom he depends for investment information.

We are rather proud of the type of clients who avail themselves of our service. These include not only individuals in every walk of life, but officers of banks, trustees, etc. who have important sums to invest.

It is also significant that a large proportion of our business comes from clients whom we have served for years.

How Much Can $10,000 Buy?...

For instance, here are some of the ways you might invest it . . . some of the things your $10,000 can buy.

$10,000 Invested in:	Yields annual Income of about
Short-term tax-exempt Municipal Bonds	$ 110-130
Long-term taxable Government Bonds	$ 270
Savings Banks and Building & Loan Assns.	$ 250-350
High Grade Corporate Bonds (New Offerings)	$ 315-325
Good Common Stocks	$ 550-650

We circled the last item because it looks like an obvious choice for most people.

By "good common stocks" we mean the 200 stocks used to make up the Moody averages . . . the kind that currently return about 5.5% on your money.

And there are plenty of such stocks to choose from. Of the 1,054 common stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange last year, for example, 9 out of 10 paid dividends — dividends averaging 6.5%!

Of course, some stocks paid more, some less. That's why we'll gladly help you select the most suitable securities currently available . . . review your present holdings . . . give you all the facts we can on any industry, company, or stock.

There's no charge for these services, either, whether you're a customer or not. So if you'd like current details on just what $10,000, or $1,000, or $100,000 can buy — if you'd like us to set up an investment program to fit your needs and objectives, simply write to —

GM Gearing Its Plants For Dual-Aim Operation

Easy Shift to Defense Work Held Important to Economy

Dual-purpose industrial plants are the answer to America's on-again then off-again defense economy, the General Motors Corp. believes.

In their annual report for 1951, the board of directors stated the company had already begun setting up many of its combined operations on such a basis.

This, they point out, calls for a long-term co-ordination of facilities and manpower so that output can be all civilian, all defense, or a combination of both.

"CONTINUING BASIS"

The board said it felt plants of this type provide the best means of maintaining the country's economic and military strength on a "continuing" basis.

"From a long-range standpoint," the report states, "it is more important to have facilities that can be quickly geared to quantity production of military items when an emergency arises than to build up large stockpiles of arms only to have them become obsolete."

There must be sufficient flexibility to permit shifts from civilian production to defense production without lowering total output and without leaving men unemployed and facilities idle, the reports continues.

NEEDLESS STOCKPILING

"It is likewise important not to strain the economy of the nation by stockpiling materials needlessly," it adds.

"National security and national solvency are dependent each upon the other," the report states, "and both are dependent upon a healthy industry."

The company's aim in the months ahead will be to carry out defense assignments to the best of its ability, the report concludes.

But beyond this there is the "ever continuing responsibility of helping to maintain a strong and vigorous economy through the efficient production of needed cars, trucks and other civilian products."

Cotton Futures Close Mixed

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—Cotton futures turned weak Tuesday under pressure of liquidation. The confidence of traders was shaken by the sharp decline in securities, continued poor civilian demand for cotton goods and the renewed peace maneuvers abroad.

Declines in early trading extended to about $1 a bale. The market then rallied temporarily on active mill buying and short covering, but there was no follow through to the demand, with the heavier selling encountered later in the day. Mills took advantage of the reaction to cover a substantial volume of futures against raw cotton operations.

Dallas advices reported no rain in Texas.

Stocks Sag; Earnings Lists Blamed

New York Times News Service
Special to The Atlanta Constitution

NEW YORK, April 15—Another severe sinking spell was suffered today by the Stock Market with losses ranging up to 4 points. Targets for the renewed attack were units in the oil, rail, automotive, tire and aircraft divisions. Buying came in near the close and there was some rebound in prices.

It was the sharp reactionary movement that has been overhanging the market for several weeks, and again there was no definite news to background the slump. In terms of the averages of the New York Times index, the list retreated anew by 2.69 points, the widest drop in the composite rate since late last October.

BRISK VOLUME

Business on the Stock Exchange continued at a fairly active pace, transactions totaling 1,720,000 shares, compared with 1,790,000 shares on Monday. The list was riddled with inroads as 816 of the 1,204 individual stocks traded showed declines with gains in only 164 while 224 ended unchanged from the previous close.

The peak of the pressure was encountered by the market around midday when sales became sufficiently insistent to force the high speed reporting ticker tape behind actual floor transactions. It was the first delay of this kind in several weeks. Poor first-quarter earnings statements were held the basic cause by brokers for the new assault on quotations. However, these had been antipated and could not generally be considered a prime factor Probably more realistic was the fact that the list had failed to rally on the announcement of higher freight rates for the railroads and the opening up of the entire nation for television channels.

C. P. RETREATS

Pepsi Cola, on a turnover of 31,600 shares, led the market in volume and closed at 10½ for a net increase of ⅛ point. Canadian Pacific topped the carriers in business on 24,400 shares and retreated 1⅜ points to a final rating of 36⅞. Southern Pacific, on sales of 22,500 shares, lost 2⅛ points at 71⅛, and Northern Pacific gave way 3⅞ points at 81¾. Other weak spots in the railroad division included Atlantic Coast Line, Santa Fe and Union Pacific.

Atlantic Refining dropped 2⅝ points to 83⅝, Cities Service 2¼ at 104¾, Phillips 1⅜ at 55½ and Texas Pacific Land Trust sustained a decline of 3 points to a close of 180. The various Standard Oil Company stocks also came under fire, especially the Indiana New Jersey units.

Bethlehem eased ⅝ point at 48⅝, with a decline of ⅜ for United States Steel at 38⅛. Chrysler was off a point at 72⅝ and General Motors slightly more at 52⅞.

Southeast Scrap Collecting Job Draws Plaudits

The nation and especially the Southeast have done an "excellent" job in salvaging scrap metal but the need for it at mills is as keen as it has ever been, W. B. Rayburn, assistant field director of salvage for the U. S. Department of Commerce, said here Tuesday.

Rayburn said the nation reclaimed 36,000,000 tons last year and must salvage a minimum of 40,000,000 tons this calendar year. He said the Southeast did a good job of "carrying the burden" during winter months when ice and snow blocked operations in the North.

As part of a tour of the region, Rayburn met with the Chamber of Commerce and other volunteer collection groups here. He told them it is estimtaed the scrap shortage may exist for as long as 15 years.

Sugar Futures

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—World sugar futures eased Tuesday. Traders were influenced partly by the foreign peace maneuvers and advices that Germany has postponed purchase of about 40,000 tons of Cuban raws until next Monday. Buying had been expected this Thursday.

Domestic raw offerings were at 6.25 cents a pound delivered, with buyers at 620. cent. It was reported that late Monday a Southern refiner bought Cubas at 6.23 cents a pound delivered and Gulf refiners were believed to have purchased raws at 6.20 cents.

Grains Erratic; Wheat Steady

CHICAGO, April 15—(AP)—Grains were nervous at the Board of Trade Tuesday and followed an erratic course with the exception of wheat.

Fairly heavy flour buying by Eastern chain bakeries steadied that grain, especially the nearby deliveries. New crop contracts were inclined to drag.

At the finish wheat was ⅜ to 2 cents higher than Monday's close, May 2.48½-⅝. Corn was ¼ to 1 cent lower, May $1.82⅞-83. Oats were ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, May 82⅞-83. Rye was 1 to 1½ cents higher, May $2.00¼. Soybeans were ⅝ to 1½ higher, May $2.87¾-⅞ and lard was 7 to 13 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $11.05.

GE Planning 550 Million Expansion

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., April 15—(AP)—The president of the General Electric Co. told stockholders today the company plans to spend $550 million on expansion under a four-year program already under way.

The total is $200 million above the figure announced last year for the building program. President Ralph J. Cordiner said the estimate had been boosted "because of the accelerated demand" for GE products.

A total of 1,821 stockholders and 351 guests turned out for the meeting, which GE said was the largest shareowners gathering in American industrial history. The previous company record was 1,741 stockholders and 216 guests last year.

Cordiner told the stockholders GE had a net profit of $29,024,000 for the first three months of this year, equal to $1.01 a share of common stock. This was 17 per cent below the $34,996,000, or $1.21 a share, for the first quarter of 1951. A dividend of 75 cents a share, the same as for the first quarter of last year, will be paid April 25.

Cordiner said GE's 1951 tax bill of $402 million averaged $1,000 every 78 seconds. "Taxes cannot continue to rise, or even stay at present levels without stunting the future growth of the nation," he asserted.

Atlanta Produce

Trading and receipts were very light for most lines on the Atlanta produce market early Tuesday according to the Production and Marketing Administration. Cabbage was stronger especially for light offerings of good quality stock, but most other commodities were unchanged from Monday morning.

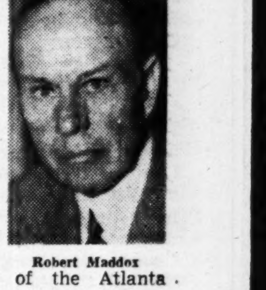

New arrivals included some Alabama 24-quart crates of Blakemore strawberries which sold at 10.00-10.80 per crate. Apples and citrus fruits were unchanged.

New potatoes were too scarce to quote and old-crop stock was mostly seed stock. Few Tennessee crates of sweet potatoes was 1.75-7.50. Florida round-type cabbage was 1.75-2.25 for some ordinary to fair stock with best quality held higher—few Georgia good quality sold in large lots at 2.35. Very few turnips arrived and some Georgia ranged 1.50-2.00 dozen; collards were also 1.50-2.00 dozen mostly 1.75-2.00; mustard ranged 1.00-1.50 mostly 1.25 and Georgia turnip greens mostly 1.25-1.50 per bushel in job lots. Georgia green onions were 75-1.00 mostly jobbing around 90c per dozen bunches.

Few Florida vegetables offered included Tendergreen beans 3.50-4.00; poles 5.00-5.50 and poorer lower; cucumbers 5.00-6.00; eggplant 3.00-3.50 fair 2.50 and poorer mostly 1.50; bell peppers medium to large were 5.00-5.50 best large few 7.25; yellow crookneck squash was 4.50-5.00; green corn 75 cents dozen and yellow in crates 3.00-3.50 with best 4.25-4.50 and poorer low as 2.00; celery was steady as Goldenheart 3-4 dozen in 16-inch crates, washed, sold 3.50-3.75 mostly 3.75, few 4.00 and Pascal type 3 and 4 dozen at 3.00-3.25 per crate. Georgia English peas were worth 2.75-3.00 per bushel hamper with few held higher.

Maddox Gets Award From Georgia Power

Robert Maddox

Former chairman of the First National Bank, Maddox has long been identified with civic and business progress here. He is former mayor of Atlanta, president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Bankers Association and American Bankers Association.

At the present time he is a director of the First National, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Georgia Power Co. President Harllee Branch Jr. of the power company made the award at a board of directors meeting at which it was announced that Georgia Power had won first place in the largest electrical utilities classification of the National Safety Council's public utilities safety contest for the third time.

President Ned Dearborn of the safety council will make the award at a luncheon at the Capital City Club April 28. Georgia Power was winner in 1947 and in 1949 and has won one of the top since 1940.

Allied Guns Repel 3 Blows As Reds Lash West Front

B-26s Destroy 38 Trucks; Navy Shells Rip Both Coasts

By GEORGE A. McARTHUR

SEOUL, Korea, Wednesday, April 16—(AP)—Red troops hit Allied lines on the Western Front last night and touched off an Allied artillery barrage that roared through most of the night.

The Communist probes were west and north of Munsan, Allied advance truce headquarters. Fire from the big U. N. guns could be heard in Seoul, more than 40 miles to the south.

One artillery-supported Red attack drove Allied soldiers back from their advanced position shortly after midnight. The other three assaults were repulsed. One of the fights lasted nearly an hour.

An Allied combat patrol hit a strong Red outpost west of Munsan early Wednesday and was twice driven off. Small skirmishes were reported west of Chorwon and southwest of Kumsong.

Air Force strikes on Red targets were restricted by bad flying weather. Despite the clouds, B-26 pilots claimed 38 trucks, two locomotives and 12 box cars destroyed. B-26 Superforts hit the Chongju rail bridge and the Communist front lines.

Naval planes flew from Allied carriers off both th East and West Coasts Tuesday. Warships fired sea-borne artillery into Wonsan, Hungnam, the Kojo area and West Coast targets on the Yellow Sea side of the peninsula.

East German Police, 3 GIs Trade Gunfire

COBURG, Germany, April 15—(AP). An Easter gun battle between American soldiers and East German police was disclosed today.

West German police said the shooting occurred Sunday at nearby Kronach, on West German soil but near the border of Russian-occupied Germany.

According to the police report:

A U. S. Army border patrol of three soldiers came across two East German people's police on the western side of the border. The East Germans withdrew across the border but soon came back with five reinforcements.

Some East German police opened fire, but when the Americans returned the fire they withdrew again across the border into East Germany. There were no casualties.

Lists 118,000 Registration Roll

Between 118,000 and 120,000 voters have registered in Fulton County, Howard Mashburn, county registrar, estimated Tuesday.

Mashburn joined the Metropolitan Voting Council in urging citizens not already on the registrar's list to qualify themselves to vote in the May 14 primary.

Although hydrogen is a small fraction of 1 per cent of air at sea level, about 95 per cent of the air 100 miles above sea level is hydrogen.

Foreign Service Job Openings To Be Discussed

Harris H. Williams of the U. S. State department will speak Thursday at Emory University on opportunities in foreign service.

Harris Williams

Williams said about 300 jobs in foreign service were open and applications for examination must be made before July 1. Citizens between 20 and 31 are eligible, he added.

His talk, sponsored by Emory's political science department, is scheduled at 11 a. m. in Room 117 of the History Building. Selected candidates will be assigned to embassies, consulates and legations overseas after training in Washington.

350 Expected for Sessions Of 5 Dixie Science Groups

About 350 persons are expected to attend joint sessions of five science groups at Agnes Scott College this week end.

The organizations are the Association of Southeastern Biologists, the Georgia Academy of Science, the Southeastern section of the Botanical Society of America, the Southern Appalachian Botanical Club and the Georgia section of the American Chemical Society.

Officers of the groups will hold a pre-convention dinner meeting at 6:15 p. m. Thursday in the Letita Pate Evans Dining Hall at Agnes Scott. The college will open the Bradley Observatory to visitors from 8 to 10 p. m. Thursday.

Registration will begin early Friday in Campbell Hall. Each organization will have its own schedule during the day. All delegates will attend a tea at 4:30 p. m. Friday. The annual dinner will be a joint gathering at 6:15 p. m. Friday, when Dr. Mary Stuart MacDougall, head of the biology department at Agnes Scott, will be toastmaster.

The agenda Saturday will include business meetings, scientific papers and a field trip to Stone Mountain.

Sunday Film Veto Beaten In Hapeville

Following a 30-minute debate that centered about the "Biblical aspects" of Sunday movies, the Hapeville City Council voted Tuesday night to override the veto of Mayor Frank Lea and pave the way for Sunday movies. The vote carried, 4-1, with Councilman Tom Morris the only dissenter.

The council voted two weeks ago to allow Sunday movies but the mayor later vetoed it. The bill was re-introduced and the required two-thirds vote was mustered to override the veto.

In another action, the council adopted an ordinance setting July 1 as the date for an election to decide on home rule. Following the meeting, Attorney Tom McCord pointed out candidates for the Home Rule Charter Commission can qualify to run for office by registering with the city clerk any time between May 1 and June 1. All citizens of Hapeville are eligible, he said, provided they are at least 21 years of age and are not employed by the city.

The council also announced plans for the opening of the municipal swimming pool May 19.

College Park's Band Drive Seeks Fare to Capital

An all-out effort will be launched to raise a minimum of $650 to send the College Park High School Band to Washington with the Fulton County schoolboy patrol this year.

Sponsored by the Band Booster Club of College Park, the band will parade at 2:30 p. m. Friday afternoon, then solicit donations while still in uniform.

The club also plans a band concert at College Park Auditorium at 7:45 p. m. Friday, April 25, followed by a square and round dance.

Hunt for Safe Drivers Too Much for Police

STAUNTON, Va., April 15—(AP)—This Shenandoah Valley city of 20,000 has no courteous drivers—at least police could not find any.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce started it all by announcing it would honor the city's two most polite and safe drivers. Police were asked to find the two.

They looked for a week.

But the civic-minded Jaycees are not giving up—they asked police to continue the search another week.

Research Unit For Nursing Is Discussed

Plans for establishment of a research center in nursing at a university in one of 14 Southern states were discussed here Tuesday at a meeting of representatives of 23 collegiate schools of nursing sponsored by the Southern Regional Education Board.

William J. McGlothlin, consultant for professional programs of the board, presided. The meeting was held in connection with the Southeastern Hospital Conference which opens Wednesday at the Biltmore Hotel.

Participants included Miss Julia Miller, former dean of the Emory University School of Nursing, and Miss Elizabeth Kemble, dean of the University of North Carolina School of Nursing.

Representatives of the Rockefeller Foundation, Russell Sage Foundation, Commonwealth Fund, W. K. Kellogg Foundation and public health officials also attended.

Candidates Talk at Rally In DeKalb

Approximately 100 persons Tuesday night listened to 16 DeKalb Democratic primary candidates state their platforms in the county's first civic club political rally of the campaign.

The meeting was held at Medlock School by the North Decatur Civic Association.

Fifth District Rep. James C. Davis said his policy had always been to hold taxes down and that he had been unable to go along with President Truman on FEPC, the Brannan Plan and increased taxes. His opponent, Attorney Baxter Jones Jr., said he would abolish the county unit system in the Fifth District congressional race and called for "X-ray" business methods to find and cut waste in the federal government.

State Rep. James A. Mackay said he would work for a local government commission in DeKalb to study and improve county government. Another incumbent, state Rep. W. Hugh McWhorter, departed from his prepared speech to point to extremely light votes in recent local elections and to "insist" that citizens present use their influence to get out a bigger vote May 14.

Laborer Sought In Wife Slaying

Sgt. L. L. Hause and Det. W. S. Acree said Wesley Daniel, a 45-year-old Negro laborer, of 463 North Ave., N. E., Tuesday fired five bullets from a small caliber pistol into the body of his wife, Hattie Mae Daniel. He shot a stepdaughter, Mattie Mae Hollis, in the shoulder when she sought to interfere. The stepdaughter was admitted to Grady Hospital.

NEW LOW PRICES
WHERE else in such a neighborhood as this can you buy a 3-bedroom, 1-bath house for as little as $12,750 or a 3-bedroom, 2-bath house for $14,500? These smartly designed homes have all the extras you would expect, and will STAY modern for many years to come. Down payments range from $1,600 up on GI loans and from $2,650 up on FHA loans. DON'T come here expecting to see regular conventional type houses, as these are DIFFERENT. COME SEE FOR YOURSELF WHAT WONDERFUL VALUES THESE ARE.
TO REACH PROPERTY: Turn right at Cascade-Beecher intersection and go out Beecher Rd. 1.2 miles to Rector Dr., then left to property. Salesmen on premises. See or call Tom Oswald, RA. 0469 or Robt. Warren, AM. 3223 or ofc., CY. 6262.

Calcium and D Food—Not Medicine

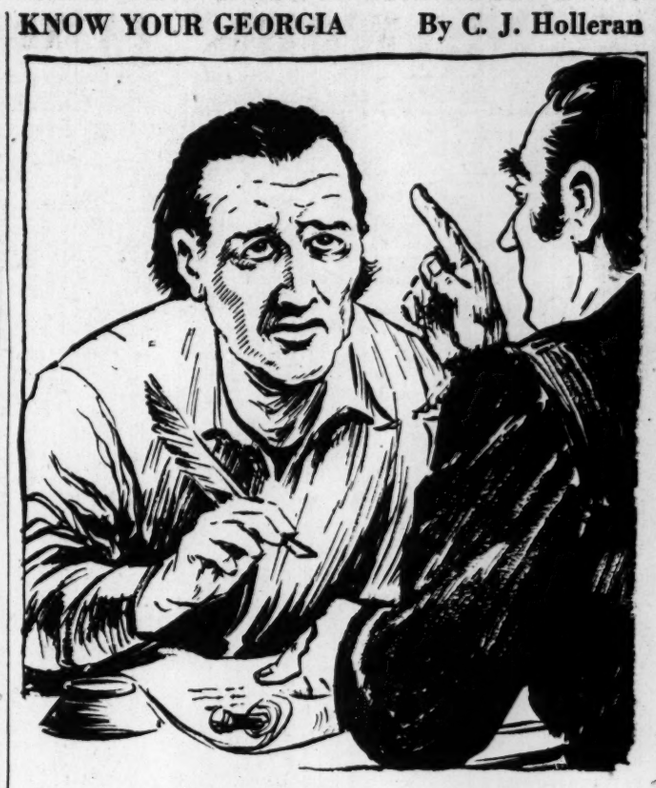

A capsule is virtually one capsule within another. For instance vitamin D is essential for the normal assimilation, utilization and retention of calcium, but if the two are in contact for a considerable time the vitamin D potency deteriorates. So the calcium salts are inclosed in one capsule, and after that has been sealed in a gelatin coat the vitamin D is added as an outer coat and the whole inclosed in a surface coat.

In the past 10 years I have smoked many pipefuls over the question of the analgesic (painkiller) value of calcium. At first it was purely and simply a pipe dream. I don't remember precisely what started it, but probably it was the frequency of reports from readers who had experienced relief of such ache or pain from calcium—not from a dose of two but from increased daily intake of calcium over a period of weeks or months.

Neuralgia, neuritis, "nervous" headache, periodic sick headache (migraine), rheumatiz and other ailments for which people indulge recklessly in dangerous analgesics (pain killers) such as aspirin, acetanilid or phenacetin are all good "indications," as doctors says, for calcium and D.

I keep telling you—you children—and you keep asking me foolish questions which show you don't listen—that calcium and D in this form is food, not medicine, and in order to get the analgesic effect you must take it for weeks or months.

KNOW YOUR GEORGIA — By C. J. Holleran

Never a Dull Moment in Early Georgia

Probably the most fantastic scheme ever conceived to create a dictatorship and to do it legally was the Talfeur-Williams plan to gain control of the colony of Georgia. At that time, 1739, titles to lands granted settlers were not transferable and the sale of liquor was forbidden. Talfeur was a doctor of questionable integrity and Williams was Georgia's first "big shot" bootlegger. These characters secured a secret petition signed by the majority of the colonists requesting that they be allowed to dispose of their lands as they desired. It seemed a fair and simple thing, but when Oglethorpe found out what was afoot, he rushed a plea to England that it be rejected and exposed the fraud behind it. Here is a part of his communication: "There is one Talfeur an Apothecary Surgeon who gives Physick and one Williams of whom I wrote you formerly, a Merchant who quitted planting to sell Rum. To these two, almost all of the Town is in debt for Physick and Rum and they have raised a strong desire that Lands may be alienable and then they would take the Lands for the Debts, monopolize the County and settle it with Negros. You cannot imagine how much uneasiness I have here."

Kefauver Sees Struggle With Russell in Florida

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 15—(AP)—Senator Kefauver said today he expects a hard fight against Senator Russell in their Florida campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

He said he thinks his entire campaign will be a "long hard fight."

Chief difficulties in Florida, he said in a brief stop here, are the "bitter opposition of Gov. Fuller Warren and the lack of time to campaign."

Governor Warren has announced his support of Senator Russell. Warren also has said he will take the stump to campaign against Kefauver.

Russell and Kefauver will meet for the first time in the Florida preferential primary May 6—the only one to be held in the Deep South this year. The only other two candidates on the ballot are two politically unknown Miami men.

Kefauver's stop here was the first of an eight-city, two-day state tour to organize his campaign. Other stops today included Gainesville, Orlando, St. Petersburg and Tampa. He flew in from New York.

"I have no personal enmity towards Fuller Warren," the Tennessee senator told newsmen here. "I don't know him personally. I tried as chairman of the Senate crime investigating committee to do a fair job."

Warren refused to appear before the committee in response to a subpoena and blasted Kefauver and committee members when the committee criticized Florida law enforcement and gambling.

Kefauver said Warren was the only public official who did not comply with a committee request to appear and co-operate in the crime investigations.

"One makes enemies sometimes who hate with a vengeance," said Kefauver. "That seems to be the situation with Governor Warren. I'm sorry it's that way," he added, shaking his head.

Businessman Found Dead in Parked Car

Leslie Hubbard, 69-year-old retired businessman of Atlanta and Brunswick who was reported missing Monday, was found dead Tuesday afternoon slumped across the front seat of his automobile which was parked in front of the Shrine Club at 400 Ponce de Leon Ave., N. E.

Sgt. L. L. Hause said that Hubbard evidently died of a heart attack at noon Monday and the body had remained unnoticed in the car parked on the heavily-traveled street for 24 hours.

Hubbard has been the object of an extensive search by the Atlanta police and the State Patrol since he was reported missing at noon Monday.

Hubbard drove his wife and daughter, Mrs. Roy Lee of 1768 Melrose Dr., S. W., to a downtown department store Monday morning and then visited the Shrine Club. He was last seen leaving the Shrine Club at noon Monday.

He operated a printing concern on Marietta Street until his retirement two years ago. His son-in-law, Roy Lee, is director of West End Elementary band.

An inquest will be held Wednesday.

Popular Vote Denied for 5th District

Active Voters' plea to run the Fifth District congressional primary on a popular-vote basis was denied Tuesday by the district Democratic Executive Committee.

Murphy Candler Jr., committee chairman, wrote the voter organization that its plea against the unit system came too late for action before the May 14 primary.

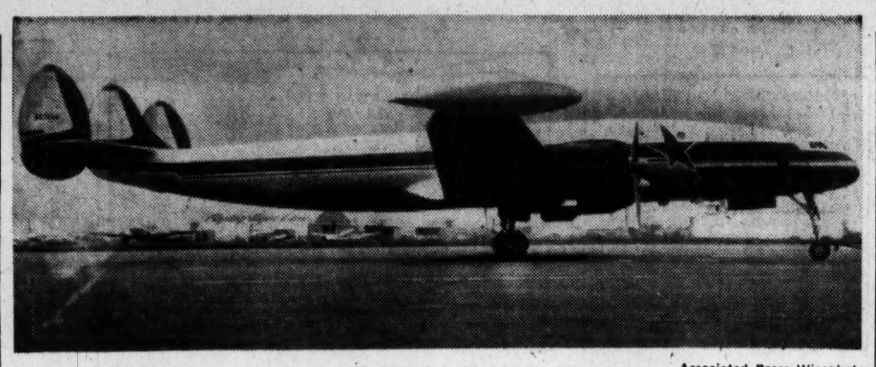

Baxter Jones Jr., candidate for the congressional seat and opponent of the county unit system, told the organization he would abolish the unit system if he is elected.

Active Voters had asked Jones and the incumbent candidate, James C. Davis, for their views on vote-counting methods. The group said it had not received a reply from Davis.

Barrow Cancer Fund

WINDER, April 15—John Henry Eavenson, vice-president of the Barrow Manufacturing Company, has been named fund raising chairman for Barrow County Cancer Crusade. The county's proportionate share of the statewide goal is $890.00.

TEARDROP TANKS FOR TRANSPORTS—NEW YORK, April 15—Wingtip fuel tanks have been installed on this Lockheed Super Constellation prototype, the first passenger-type plane to use them. Engineers said lift effect generated by tanks was strong enough to compensate for extra weight. Weighing two tons each, tanks will give 450-mile-an-hour, turbo-prop powered plane long range even though its fuel consumption is 50 per cent greater than that of conventional engines. Planes are being built for the Navy.

Class III Dentists Due for Draft This Summer

MILWAUKEE, April 15 (AP)—The armed forces this summer will start calling up dentists with priority III ratings, Brig. Gen. Louis H. Renfrow, deputy director of selective service, said today.

Dentists currently hold three priority ratings—in II and III. The pool in the first two categories—dentists trained partly or entirely at government expense and with less than 21 months of military service after dental training—is shrinking rapidly, Renfrow said.

"By July 1," he told the Wisconsin State Dental Association, "we will have to start going into priority III." This category includes all dentists, except veterans, who are under 50 years of age and veterans if their service was prior to dentistry training.
